TATE MAYOR OF DALLAS

Propose Change In Methodist Benevolence Plan

ANNUAL DISTRICT CONFERENCE IS BEING HELD HERE

TWO HUNDRED VISITORS ARE HERE FOR MEETING AT FIRST CHURCH

Reports of pastoral charges in the district and meeting of all committees occuped most of the time Wednesday in the first of the two-day's session of the annual McKinney District Methodist conference, which opened at the First Methodist church at 9 o'clock this (Wednesday) morning, coming to a close Thursday afternoon.

Dr. R. G. Mood, presiding elder of the McKinney district, is presiding over all sessions of the district conference. Rev. Roy L. Patton, pastor of the South Wilcox Methodist church, was elected secretary of the conference, and Rev. Hugh Porter, pastor of the Garland Methodist church, was named assistant secretary.

Luncheon for Visitors.

Plates were laid for 200 visitors, including pastors of churches in this district, and all delegates to the conference, in the spacious dining room of the First Methodist church, served by the ladies of the Woman's Missionary society. Tomorrow (Thursday) noon the visitors will be served another luncheon by the Social Workers of that church.

The sermon Wednesday morning was delivered by Rev. Wesley V. Hite, pastor of the Celina Methodist church. Rev. Earl Patton, pastor of the Plano Methodist church, will deliver the sermon tonight at the church at 7:30 o'clock. Dr. J. H. Groseclose of Dallas, superintendent of the Dallas Methodist hospital, will preach at 11 o'clock tomorrow (Thursday) morning. Mrs. Gibson Caldwell, organist for the First Methodist church here, is at the organ during the song services during the two-day district meet here.

Would Abandon Assessment.

Hon. George P. Brown, member of the congregation of the First Methodist church here, offered a resolution at Wednesday morning's session to the general conference that would do away with the assessment system for benevolences, putting all benevolences on the free-will basis. The matter was referred to a committee, to be reported back for discussion later Wednesday or Thursday morning. It was expected that the resolution would evoke lively discussion.

Balloting was begun Wednesday morning for selection of ten lay delegates to the North Texas Annual conference which meets in McKinney this fall, in October. The results of the balloting was to be made known some time Wednesday afternoon.

The McKinney District conference, in session here, comprises twenty-six pastoral charges, and includes all of Collin county, part of Hunt county, and all of Dallas county with the exception of the city of Dallas. The annual meeting was held last year at Prosper, in the west part of this county.

The First Methodist church, scene of this annual two-day gathering, is attractively decorated, in all kinds of spring blossoms, for the occasion. A spirit of good-will and fellowship prevails over the sessions and visitors expressed the opinion that this would prove to be a most successful and profitable gathering.

Scholastics to Show About Same as 1928

County Supt. S. C. Stephens and his assistant, Mrs. J. F. Collins, are busily engaged in work on the census rolls, getting them in shape to be sent to the State Department of Education at Austin. These rolls must be into the state department by the first of June. They are now getting the independent school rolls in shape, after which they will begin work on the common school rolls.

In 1927, there were over 13,000 pupils classified in schools of this county, while last year, 1928, 12,600 were classified. This year's number of pupils in county schools will likely be about the same as last year's record.

BISHOP SCHOOL CHILDREN VISIT LOCAL CONCERNS

PILOTED BY THEIR EFFICIENT TEACHER MRS. FRED M. OWNBEY

Mrs. Fred M. Ownbey of this city is teaching her second year at the Bishop school about four miles southeast of McKinney. She has a 8-month school, and has four weeks of it yet to teach.

Mrs. Ownbey has been teaching in the county for a number of years and is rated among our most successful lady teachers. She not only instructs the children in their books, but also seeks to give them as much practicaly experience and training as possible by observation and actual contact with the world about them. For instance, she brought her pupils in a body to McKinney Saturday and chaperoned them on a tour of visitation to various local enterprises of the city. She did the same thing last year. It so pleased and thrilled the children that they wanted the experience repeated again this year.

She took them to inspect the Will Shipley cleaning and drying plant. She found that Mr. Shipley has modern equipment for his plant and operates on a much more extensive scale than most people are aware of.

She and her pupils also visited the post office, where Postmaster Wallace C. Wilson and his force of clerks courteously showed them about over this federal building and gave them an insight to the important work of handling the great volume of United States mail that is constantly passing through the McKinney office.

At the W. W. Pruett Marble yard, Mr. Pruett and employes gave them a cordial welcome. The children saw for the first time the methods and the art employed in transforming the rough marble and granite into the brightly polished and artistically inscribed finished product.

County Jailer Tully B. Lucas showed the pupils through the county bastile and some of these children, at least, for the first time, looked within prison walls.

They also visited the Costen bakery, whose proprietor graciously received them and gave the inquisitive minds of these young pupils information about the art of baking and preparation of food products in a sanitary way on a large scale to supply the retail and wholesale requirements of a town of McKinney's size.

The Pecan Grove dairy located one mile east of the McKinney court house was also a point of interest to Mrs. Ownbey and pupils. This is a beautiful location for a dairy and is well improved. It is operated and owned by John C. Enloe & Sons. Its equipment and herd of pretty, well-bred Jersey milch cows drew the utmost interest of the pupils in this big dairy plant and its operation.

Mrs. Ownbey and pupils spent the noon hour in beautiful Finch park, where they spread their lunch and enjoyed the many good things prepared for them by their loving mothers.

Mrs. Ownbey stated that as a result of the various visitations in our city the children returned to their respective homes in the evening much wiser than before, and with a high sense of appreciation of the importance of their county seat town and the modern enterprises that combine in making it one of the best little cities in this portion of the state.

Quarter Inch Rain Beneficial

Rainfall amounting to .26 of an inch fell in McKinney and vicinity Tuesday night and early Wednesday morning, it was reported by E. Pearl Skelton, local volunteer weather observer.

While the rain came down in heavy showers Wednesday morning and the dark clouds hung low in a threatening manner, Old Sol made his appearance later in the morning and shone down on a smiling local citizenship Wednesday.

If the showers will cease now the rain here early Wednesday will be beneficial to farmers all over the county, where rain fell, as well as to local gardens and flower gardens. The rain delayed farmers from working in their fields only a few hours.

MOODY URGES FIVE SUBJECTS TO CALL SESSION

GOVERNOR LAYS RECOMMENDATIONS BEFORE LEGISLATORS

Austin, Texas, April, 24.—In his message to the first called session of the Forty-First legislature, Gov. Dan Moody tendered five subjects for legislation, which included the three he had set forth in his original proclamation. He said in the message that these subjects will afford legislation "that will improve departmental economy and efficiency." He listed the subjects as follows:

The enactment of laws providing for the concentration of the Texas prison system and the improvement of the system along modern and scientific lines.

The enactment of laws with reference to the handling of prisoners in the penitentiary, including the adoption of an adequate parole law.

The enactment of laws carrying into effect the amendment to Section 8 of Article 7 of the Constitution.

The enactment of laws to place the selection of subordinate employes of the state government on a merit basis.

The enactment of statutes to abolish the terms of the several district courts and to provide that courts may hold session in any county of their individual districts at any time to be determined by the judge of such court, and otherwise to simplify and reform the procedure in civil cases.

The board of education subject is included and the civil service or merit system, as contained in the original proclamation.

Added to the foregoing is the matter of permitting continuous sessions of district courts, at the discretion of the judge, so as to keep abreast of the docket and thus do as much work as possible. The judge could hold court in such counties as he selected. It would abolish terms. Attached to it is the wide open subject of simplifying and reforming the procedure in civil cases. It is doubted by some whether the last is broad enough to include the search and seizure amendments, since they pertain to criminal cases.

ELD. HORN TO DELIVER ANNUAL SERMON APRIL 28

WILL OBSERVE 85TH BIRTHDAY BY PREACHING AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Next Friday, April 26, is the 85th birthday anniversary of Eld. R. C. Horn, who resides with his devoted wife and companion at 704 South Parker street.

In celebration of this day Eld. Horn has been invited to preach at the First Christian church and accepted the invitation and will occupy the pulpit at the morning hour of worship 10:45 o'clock next Sunday, April 28.

Eld. Horn is a splendid example of upright, clean living. He has spent much time out in the open air with nature. He has labored with his hands and kept a healthy body, a pure mind and a happy heart.

Eld. Horn is known to practically every man, woman and child in Collin county and adjoining counties.

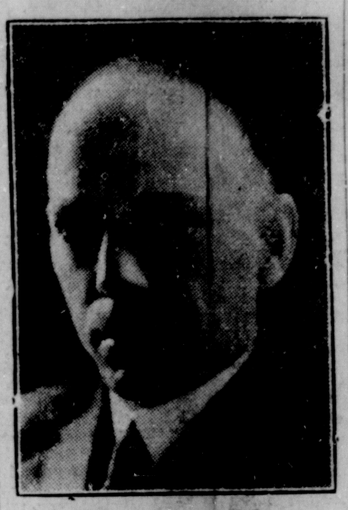
It is certain that many will avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing this veteran minister next Sunday morning at the First Christian church, where he is a teacher of the Men's class, and also one of the elders of the congregation, being elected to that position for life.

FORMER COLLIN MAN NOW IN WASHINGTON

The Weekly Democrat-Gazette is in receipt of an appreciative letter from W. S. Allen of Selleck, state of Washington. He says, 'I am very glad to receive my old home town paper. McKinney is my former home town. Although I left there nearly thirty years ago. Don't suppose I would know many of your people there now however. I have relatives and a number of good friends still living in the old town. Miss Grace Allen of McKinney is my sister, and I have, as stated, other relatives there. Keep the Democrat-Gazette coming. I am glad to get it."

M'KINNEY MAN CLIMBING IN INSURANCE WORLD

H. D. MOUZON BECOMES STATE MANAGER HIS COMPANY IN OKLAHOMA



H. D. MOUZON.

H. D. Mouzon of this city has been promoted to be state manager of the Amicable Life Insurance company for the state of Oklahoma, with headquarters at Oklahoma City.

Mr. Mouzon has had a number of years of experience in the life insurance business, in which he has enjoyed a marked degree of success. For the last five years he has been field supervisor of agents of the Amicable for a large scope of Texas territory extending from Texarkana to Wichita Falls, and southward as far as Tyler.

He goes to Oklahoma to become state manager of that entire state. But at the same time he retains his financial interest in the business built up here by him in this Texas territory.

While he himself will go in a few days to Oklahoma City to open up his office and take charge of his company's business in that state, he informs us that his wife and daughter, Miss Dorothy, will not follow him to their new home until probably late in June or July.

Miss Dorothy is a popular and talented expression teacher of McKinney and will finish out her year's work with her classes here before changing her location to Oklahoma City. She is one of our city's fairest and most talented young young women.

Mr. and Mrs. Mouzon's son, H. D., Jr., has for the past two years been the Liggett & Myers Tobacco company representative in Grayson and Fannin counties with headquarters in Sherman.

This splendid McKinney family have been residents among us for twenty-five years, and it is with keenest regret that their host of friends will see them leave our city to make their home elsewhere.

Mr. Mouzon was for five years commissioner of education for the Southern Methodist university and did much in that way in helping to establish this great Texas higher educational institution on a firm and permanent foundation.

Hon. John Doyle is in Austin on legal matters.

BAPTIST CHURCH BUSINESS MEN'S CLASS BANQUET

DALLAS MINISTER SPEAKS AS WELL AS LOCAL VISITORS

One hundred men of the Business Men's bible class of the First Baptist church, including visitors from other churches of the city gathered at a banquet in the church dning hall Tuesday evening in their annual affair and heard an address by the Rev. Mr. Eastham, pastor of the McKinney Avenue Baptist church of Dallas.

President Lee Hoover of the class presided and before introducing the main speaker presented superintendents of other Sunday schools who praised the class spirit and pointed to it a one of the best in this section and a model for others to pattern after.

These speakers included Jack Ryan, superintendent of the East Methodist church; Carl Gallagher, a past superintendent of the same church; Charles W. Graves, superintendent of the First Christian Bible school; W. T. Oglesby, superintendent First Presbyterian Sunday school; Halsell S. Davis, district clerk; Pearl Smith; George Dalton, a visitor from Princeton; C. M. Bryan, superintendent of the First Baptist Sunday school; H. J. Harris, Dallas, former president of the class; W. S. Smith, teacher of the class; T. J. Cox, Fort Worth; Earl Myrick, treasurer of the First Methodist Sunday school; Prof. B Frank Skelton, a teacher of the Men's Class of the First Methodist Sunday school.

The Men's Class of the First Baptist church is one of the most active and alert men's classes of the country. The attendance usually is about 100 each Sunday and Prof. Smith, the teacher, is a Bible scholar of rare attainments whose class lectures are declared to be wonderful appeals for right living and support of the church and the cause of the Kingdom.

Miss Frankie Oates gave a vocal number and responded with an encore that appealed especially to the men as it was in the form of a class booster song. Mrs. R. M. Crabb was accompanist. Stewart Jernigan A delightful meal was served by the ladies of the church.

Farmersville Country Better Business Basis

Deposits in Farmersville banks as of April 13 amounted to $327,929, compared with $601,083 of the same date last year. Total savings for the same date were $58,980.

Business conditions are exceptionally good at this time of the year owing to promising crop conditions.

Approximately $50,000 worth of agricultural products were shipped out of Farmersville during March, milk and cream bringing the largest total of $12,000. Other shipments were cotton, $10,000; cotton seed $3,500; poultry, $8,500, corn, $1,300; beef cattle, $1,200; dairy cows and calves, $1,000; hogs, $3,500; eggs, $1,000.

More than 500 acres have been planted to carrots in the Farmersville section and there is also a large increase seen in farm dairying proceeds from which will probably swell the county's income this year.

INTERNATIONAL ROTARY MEET AT DALLAS SOON

REAL SOUTHERN HOSPITALITY TO FEATURE GREAT GATHERING

Dallas, April 24.—Real Southern hospitality will be the keynote of the twentieth annual convention of Rotary International, when 10,000 Rotarians from every important American city and town and forty-six foreign countries gather in Dallas May 27 for a 5-day session, according to Lester Dawley, chairman of the Host Executive committee of the Dallas Rotary club, in charge of the arrangements.

To begin with, the Rotarians will see a beautifully decorated city when they reach Dallas. Abandoning the old-fashioned plan of bedecking the city in banner flags, and streamers, the Dallas Rotary club, through a co-operative arrangement with the Dallas Advertising league, has raised a $10,000 fund among Dallas merchants and business houses, and the three main streets, the Fair park, where the convention sessions are to be held, and Ferris Plaza, the public park opposite the Union station, will be converted into a literal bower of greenery and flowers. Using smilax, palm leaves, and cut blossoms, the decorations committee will work out a unique and attractive decorative plan, with the Rotary emblem, carried out in blossoms, spaced every few hundred feet. In addition, beautiful uniform floral designs, bearing the Rotary wheel, and the individual welcome greeting of every civic organization in Dallas, will adorn the sidewalks.

Every possible precaution is being taken to assure that no convention delegate shall want anything in the entertainment line that is is humanly possible to provide for him or his guests. Hotel reservations are being made through the convention manager's office, and delegates traveling the greatest distance to the convention are to be given first choice of the hotel rooms, assuring that the foreign delegates and those from the larger Eastern and Northern districts will have the pick of the accommodations in Dallas' largest and finest hotels.

Special arrangements are being made to welcome Rotarians from nearby territory. Those who come to Dallas by motor will be greeted far out along the highways by special welcoming committees, stationed in road-side booths, who will guide and direct them, and offer any assistance required.

Every bell-boy, waiter street car conductor, policeman, fireman, clerk in a retail store, and every other individual who has contact with the public will be instructed during the days between now and the convention opening, to extend special courtesy to every visitor wearing the Rotary credentials, and all Dallas will take a special pride in making every visitor feel at home.

The city will be beautiful, too, it is assured, as the result of campaigns to clean up, cut weeds, mow grass, plant flowers, paint, and otherwise make attractive the premises of every business house and family residence in Dallas. School children have been enlisted in a great essay writing contest, and the help of every civic organization, church luncheon club, improvement league and women's club, is being given in the beautification movement.

On Sunday preceding the opening of the convention, visiting Rotarian ministers and lay churchmen will occupy the pulpits of virtually all Dallas churches, and in the evening, a great sacred concert, featuring Rotarians who are professional musical artists, will be held at Fair Park auditorium.

The help of Rotary clubs in every section of Texas, in extending Texas welcome to the visitors the minute they enter the state through the gateways in every direction, has been obtained.

MISS NADINE RAINEY RECOVERING FROM OPERATION

Miss Nadine Rainey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Rainey, is recovering from a tonsil operation performed Monday in Dallas. She is now at home and her host of friends here wish for her early and complete recovery to good health again soon. Miss Rainey is the popular young lady in charge of sale of tickets at the R. & R. Pope theater. During her absence from her accustomed place of duty her sister, Mrs. Fred Allen, is in the ticket booth at the Pope. Mrs. Allen, who was formerly Miss Eunice Rainey, is here with her fine little son, Fred Jr., from Quanah, visiting their parents and grandparents.

BIG CABIN MONOPLANE MAKES FORCED LANDING NEAR CITY AS GASOLINE SUPPLY RUNS LOW

With their gasoline supply running low, an 8-passnger monoplane, the NC-134E, from Detroit, Mich., made a forced landing about two miles northwest of this city in a pasture on the Graves farm about 8 o'clock Tuesday night.

The pilot, Marion Sterling, mistaking the lights in this city for those of Dallas, landed with his gasoline gauge showing 10 gallons supply. In the monoplane were C. H. Keller of Detroit, owner of the plane; Marion Sterling of Detroit, pilot; Frank Klootz of Battle Creek, Mich., and one other passenger.

The men left Detroit, Mich., at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning and were on their way to Brownsville, Texas.

A group of McKinney young people, on their way to a picnic, saw the monoplane land and quickly made their way to the place where it landed. Vernon Cox and Miss Iona Mae Kerby brought Keller, Sterling and Klootz in to this city, he men spending the night at the Commercial hotel.

A fresh gasoline supply was obtained in McKinney Wednesday morning to enable them to resume their flight to Brownsville.

Using their powerful searchlights they picked a landing, coming down in a garlic field on the Graves farm and running the plane on to a meadow, south of their landing place. They had made splendid time on their flight, having come from Detroit to McKinney since 9 o'clock Tuesday morning, and passing over seven states.

The plane was modern in every respect, having six plush cushion seats for passengers and two seats for pilots, with bath room and other modern conveniences

"HOT DOG" ASPIRANT BEATS OPPONENT BY 3,000 VOTES

WILL PROBABLY TAKE OFFICE ABOUT MAY 1, HE SAYS

Dallas, Texas, April 24.—Mayor-Elect J. Waddy Tate and the three commissioners elected Tuesday probably will not take office before early next week.

Worn out by the long and strenuous campaign, and with no emergency existing at the city hall, the candidates sought much needed rest Wednesday.

John M. Fouts, water commissioner-elect, said he was ready to take office at any time, but would follow the wishes of the other new commissioners.

Mr. Tate was expected to leave for Houston Wednesday, and the commissioners-elect stated they intended to await the mayor-elect's return before being sworn in. R. A. (Gus) Wylie, street commissioner-elect, will seek a short rest before taking office, while W. C. Graves, police commissioner-elect, said he is in no hurry to go in.

J. Waddy Tate, apostle of the "plain people" with his quaint and simple "hot dog" philosophy, was elected mayor of Dallas and all independent canndidates for commission places were swept into office in Tuesday's city election.

The entire United Dallas association ticket, headed by Temple Morrow, suffered decisive defeat, the majorities of the winning candidates ranging from 4,852 to 3,175.

The commissioners elected Tuesday were: R. A. (Gus) Wylie, street commissioner, who defeated O. H. Koch, U. D. A.; John M. Fouts, Greater Dallas association, water commissioner, who defeated Major George F. Rozelle, U. D. A., and W. C. Graves, police commissioner, who defeated George W. Leudermilk, U. D. A.

"This election means the end of hand-picked tickets in Dallas," commented Mr. Tate Wednesday, happy over the result and tired from the strenuous events of election day, including the downtown celebration staged for him and the other winning candidates Tuesday night.

W. P. CLEVELAND VISITING OLD M'KINNEY HOME

NOW LIVING IN WEST TEXAS—DRY OUT THERE

W. P. Cleveland of Munday, Knox county, Texas is visiting his old home at McKinney. He is brother of M. T. Cleveland, where he is making his headquarters while here, five miles southeast of McKinney. Mr. Cleveland moved to West Texas about two years ago after making his home in and around McKinney for twenty-three years. He states that rain is badly needed in his part of West Texas, but that crops do not require as much rainfall to make out there as they do in this country.

Mr. Cleveland recently visited his mother, Mrs. M. J. Cleveland at 1430 DeKalb avenue, Atlanta, Ga. While there he became greatly interested in the Stone Mountain Confederate memorial that is being carved in the granite of the mountain near that city. He had a number of pictures of this noted work of art that is being chiseled in huge form on the side of the great mountain.

Mr. Cleveland is accompanied on his trip here by another brother, R. E. Cleveland of Atlanta, Ga., who came back to Texas with W. P. recently and who is now also visiting his brother, M. T. Cleveland, near McKinney. Their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Rowe of Atlanta, Ga., are also visiting their McKinney brother. They are on a motor trip through to California for the summer. They will go from McKinney to Munday, Texas to visit W. P. Cleveland and family as they proceed on their westward trip to California, after concluding their visit in and near McKinney.

Mrs. C. R. Osburn of Melissa spent Tuesday in McKinney at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morgan and remaining with W. L. Osburn, father of Mrs. Morgan, while the latter attended the funeral and burial of her friend, Mrs. V. R. Ogilvie at Melissa.

Flags and Flowers

Flags and flowers will mark the graves of each veteran sleeping in our beautiful cemetery, which will be placed thereon by the loving hands of the local chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy and other friends.

People having flowers that they are willing to give for the purpose may send them any time Sunday forenoon to Mrs. Lucas' home at the county jail. They will be taken charge of and conveyed to the cemetery for the decoration program and placing on the graves of deceased Confederates, who are buried in our beautiful city of the dead.

Records of a Busy Life, Number 104

Fld. R. C. Horn.

Some Other Records of 1929.

On the 15th of November a very a-la freeze, people were butchering their meat hogs I recorded as follows: I do not remember weather this old this early in November. It was 22 degrees above zero. I was kept quite busy cleaning up my new home. It had been greatly neglected and needed much work done on the yard garden and lot fences. I did this work myself as I was not financially able to hire a hand. I had feed stalls to repair for two cows and a pen for my shoats. I soon found that I could not yet join the "Sons of Rest" On the 17th the wife of Ernest Wilson passed to her reward after a battle for life against T. B. On the 19th, an Interurban car killed Gibson Roach, 18 year old son of George Roach of Melissa, November 20th, a damaging fire at Pecan Grove dairy. On the 21st I attended Bible school and church at First Christian during forenoon and preached to a small audience at Vineland afternoon. On the 24th, I attended the picture show of pure bred stock. I have attended a show about five times in my life. This not because I do not enjoy good shows but because I need all the money I received for other uses. On the 26th, a nice rain fell. On the 27th I attended the meeting of the Purebred Stock and Poultry Breeders. Sunday 28th, attended Bible school and church during the forenoon, we had a cool norther. On the 29th, Jack Weeks and Charles W. Graves butchered my 2 fat hogs and I cut out and spread the meat to cool. On the 30th, I trimmed and salted my meat and had my sausage meat ground at the meat market.

December Records.

On the 1st I was quite busy rendering lard, mixing and seasoning sausage, also preparing the feet and heads for souse. At night I almost wished that Dr. Kirkpatrick would elect me as member of the "Sons of rest." I surely felt like I needed some rest. On the 1st, Mrs. Dick Corley was killed and her husband seriously hurt in an auto wreck. On the 2nd, I went to the different offices and paid my monthly bills which I have not failed to do by the 2nd day of the month in 9 years. If all would do this groceries could be sold cheaper All grocermen have to allow for losses in their prices. On the 3rd Mr. Kerr and I visited the late Bud Cunningham who was convalescing from a seige of typhoid fever. He then lived in McKinney but later moved back to his farm. We also visited J. B. Kerr living several miles west of the city, who has been in bad health for some time. He and I were comrades in the Confederate Army. I read the last chapter of Revelation and prayed with the family. Answered the last roll call was by S. P. Couch on the 3rd at the age of 87 years. He was a Confederate Veteran. On Sunday the 5th, attended Bible school and church during forenoon. Pain afternoon but Throckmorton Camp of United Confederate Veterans held their monthly meeting in the First Baptist church. We had some cold showery days during December. On the 12th after attending the Bible school and church during the forenoon I called at S. O. Scott's to see old Sister Scott, widow of Capt. T. M. Scott, deceased. She was almost helpless. Another Confederate Veteran received his discharge from service here at 9 p. m. in December 15th, at his late home near Walnut Grove. On the 16th I made a funeral talk at Walnut Grove church over the body of John B. Kerr, age 78 years. He was a good man and had long been a member of the Presbyterian church. On the 17th John H. Dillehay of Parker was found dead by the side of the track of the Interurban. The cause of his death was never found out. On Sunday the 19th, we attended the church at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. We had 24 orphans from Fowler Home at Dallas to give us a program that was very good. An offering was made of $1005, for the support of the inmates of the home. From the 20th to the 27th, was cold and a few showers but the latter part of the month fair and pleasant. While I had changed location during 1929, I had not found any time to loaf as yet.

A New Year.

1921 found me busy preparing to plant a large garden for a city. As I had no team I hired B. F. Hearn to break the ground and I did the rest. My near neighbor, W. W. Kerr had a one man push plow that he let me have to use if I would do the pushing. I am still using it when I need to plow my truck but I still do the pushing. W. M. Burgess also let me use his but never offered to push it for me. I guess I'll have to keep pushing. Our late picking of cotton sold at 7 cents, being the 1920 crop. On the 8th, I called to see Hayden Johnson, who was sick. On the 11th I met the body of Joseph Lewis Smith, son of Judge G. R. Smith. It was shipped from France. He was one of our soldiers in World war and died October 31, 1918. I held a brief funeral service on 12th. P. E. Denton, a carpenter of McKinney died on the 11th of January, 18th light now, called to see Hayden Johnson, a very sick man. I attended the funeral of Miss Mollie Douglas, a niece of mine in Van Alstyne at 2:30 p. m. On the 21st, Thos. J. Cloyd, a Confederate Veteran died, age 77 years I attended his funeral on the 23rd January was a good winter season.

Pioneer Lucas Woman Is Dead

Mrs. Mary Josie Guyar, 75 years 3 months and 14 days old, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. K. Thomas, in the Lucas community Monday morning, April 22, at 7:30 o'clock. She is survived by the following children: Dave Guyar of Oklahoma, Mrs. Fannie Milton of Clara, Oklahoma, and the daughter with whom she resided, Mrs. J. K. Thomas, of Lucas.

Funeral services were held at the home of Mrs. J. K. Hunderson this (Tuesday) afternoon at 1 o'clock, conducted by Rev. A. H. Snider, assisted by Rev. J. Ben Snider, both of this city. Burial followed in the Princeton cemetery, under direction of Keller & Crouch Funeral home of this city.

Fourteen Children Attend Farmersville Family Reunion

ANNUAL DECORATION DAY SUNDAY, APRIL 28 PECAN GROVE CEMETERY AT McKINNEY—A BEAUTIFUL CUSTOM

Sunday, April 28, has been designated by the Ladies Cemetery association as annual decoration day at Pecan Grove cemetery, McKinney's beautiful city of the dead.

This old cemetery has been a place of sepulchure for this city and surrounding community for the last half-century. It is a beautiful spot and beautifully kept. In the main. However, a few indifferent lot owners, who refuse or neglect to provide the paltry annual expense sum for the care of their lots, keep the the cemetery from presenting a 100 per cent perfectly kept appearance.

The faithful sexton for the last nine years, J. P. Lane, and the ladies of the cemetery association tirelessly work toward their goal of getting every lot either perpetually endowed or care for on an annual payment basis.

Pecan Grove is one of the prettiest natural location for a cemetery in this part of the state. The ladies of the cemetery association and Mr. Lane never tire throughout the year in their work that they are putting into the discharge of their respective responsibilities.

Endowed lots and others whose annual up-keep is provided for, are now in perfect condition. Mr. Lane and four or five helpers deserve much credit for their industry in keeping the cemetery in first-class condition or as nearly so as is possible considering that so many lot owners are thoughtless or indifferent about giving their co-operation in this sacred work.

No Formal Program.

Aside from the program at 3 o'clock around the flag pole in the cemetery by the daughters of the Confederacy, there will be no other formal program during the day in connection with annual decoration observance.

Every one interested is invited to visit the cemetery at any time during the day from sunrise to sunset with their floral offering to place on graves of loved ones or friends sleeping out there.

Roses and flower gardens were never more prolific with their fragrant blooms and blossoms than they are at this particular spring time season of the year. The ladies of the association want every grave to be remembered with some sort of floral offering during the day. Visitors can go and come at will.

Officials of Association.

The officials of the Pecan Grove Cemetery association are: Mrs. Sara Howell, president; Mrs. T. W. Wiley, first vice-president; Mrs. T. M. Emerson, second vice-president; Mrs. W. T. Beverly, third vice-president; Mrs. Lillie Emerson, treasurer; Mrs. Henry W. Warden, assistant treasurer; Mrs. Lula F. Robinson, secretary.

Executive committee: Henry W. Warden, Fletcher B. Pope and W. R. Abernathy.

Sexton, J. P. Lane.

Rev. C. W. Dennis Brother Died at Farmer's Branch

George N. Dennis, 60, a resident of Farmers Branch, Dallas county, died Saturday morning in a Dallas hospital. He was buried in the Webb Chapel Methodist cemetery near Farmers Branch at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Mr. Dennis was a brother of Rev. C. W. Dennis, pastor of the Rockwall Methodist church who formerly lived in McKinney during the four years he was presiding elder of the McKinney district. The Dennis family and relatives were among the first settlers of Dallas county. The following brief family sketch of Mr. Dennis appeared in Sunday's Dallas News:

A native of Dallas county, Mr. Dennis was the son of A. J. Dennis and Sarah Webb Dennis, pioneers of the county. He was a Mason and a member of Hella Shrine Temple and the First Methodist church.

Surviving are his wife, a son, Homer A. Dennis; two daughters, Mrs. Larry Odom and Miss Fan Dennis; two sisters, Mrs. J. B. Graveley of Farmers Branch, and Mrs. E. P. Hall of Fort Worth, and three brothers, J. I. Dennis of Farmers Branch The Rev. C. W. Dennis, pastor of the Methodist church of Rockwall, and J. S. Dennis of San Angelo.

Field Trips of the Chemistry Class

The chemistry class of the Boyd High school, accompanied by their efficient teacher, Mr. Duvall, recently visited the local flour mill and the ice plant. At the mill the class was hospitably received and shown about by Mr. Gibson Caldwell and Mr. Ball, the head miller. Mr. Nelson willingly conducted the students through the ice plant. The visitors thought it very interesting to note the every-day applications of chemistry in these places of business. The trip was not only beneficial, but enjoyable to all.

UNCLE RILEY RUNNELS NOW IN 90TH YEAR

J. W. Royall, who lives on Route 3, Allen was a business visitor at our office. He is a regular reader of our paper, which he greatly appreciates. He recently sold a registered Jersey to A. J. Willis of this city. He has great admiration for the registered Jersey cattle and says that he only wisned that he owned more of them. Mr Royall lives on, and cultivates the Riley Runnels farm near Allen. He states that Mr. Runnels, who now also lives out on his farm, was 89 years old on March 10, and is quite active for a man of his advanced years.

WOMAN MEMBER OF GANG CAPTURED AFTER SHE TAKES LEAP

Chicago, Ill., April 23.—A woman and four men, members of a post-office robbery gang, engaged in a revolver and shotgun battle with two post-office inspectors and an assistant who trapped them in a small room in the Hawthorne Arms hotel today.

Evan L. Jackson, assistant chief of Chicago postal inspectors, and one member of the gang were critically wounded. The woman was injured and captured after she had leaped thirty feet from a window of the hotel room in an attmept to escape. Three of her companions, one of them wounded, escaped.

Jackson was shot through the hip leg and abdomen. At the Marine hospital attaches said his condition was critical.

The gang had been identified as the leaders in the $18,000 money order robbery of a suburban postal station April 4. The robbers had cashed $1,000 worth of the orders by using the account of Mrs. Morris Stein, a shoe merchant.

Little Three Year Old Child Hit By Auto

John Brown Murphy, little 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Murhy, was struck by a passing auto about noon Monday, knocked down and considerably bruised, but not seriously injured. Mr. and Mrs. Pat Murphy reside with the latter's mother, Mrs. John R. Brown on North Church street. The child was standing on the curb when three autos passing along the street at that point at the same time crowded one of the cars so close to the curb that the running board struck the little fellow and knocked him down. Aside from some skinned places on the face and head, the little fellow was not badly injured. Mrs. Will Edwards was driving the car that struck the child, but Mrs. Murphy, mother of the child, said that the accident was unavoidable on Mrs. Edwards' part.

RODDY STIFF'S DAUGHTER VISITED HIS OLD HOME HERE

Miss Lucile Stiff, daughter of G. A. (Roddy) Stiff, now of Como, Texas, was the week-end guest of her aunt, Mrs. Pete Lucas, and husband in McKinney. Miss Lucile is a teacher of writing and drawing in a school in Dallas county. She formerly taught two years at Princeton in this county. She has attended the East Texas State Teachers' college at Commerce for several terms, where she hopes to continue her studies again this summer. Her father was born and reared at McKinney, being a member of the pioneer Stiff family of this county, but who has lived for the past fifteen or twenty years at Como, Texas. Roddy is a fine fellow, whose old home friends having the honor were host happy to meet his fair and accomplished young daughter while here visiting her aunt.

MRS. V. R. OGILVIE OF MELISSA PASSES AWAY

MEMBER PIONEER FAMILIES — BELOVED AND MOURNED BY MANY

After a ten days' illness Mrs. V. R. Ogilvie of Melissa, one of the most beloved old mothers, neighbors, and christian women of our county, passed away at 1:30 o'clock this (Tuesday) morning, April 23, at her late home in that little village located about seven miles north of McKinney. While her passing had been almost hourly expected for three or four days, yet its announcement caused poignant grief in the hearts of practically every acquaintance as well as to the bereaved surviving relatives. Her life had been one of constant service and sacrifice for others and unfailing devotion to her church and the kingdom of her Lord. She was beloved as few women are loved, because of her good works, and motherly sympathy and practical acts of christianity that characterized her daily life.

Funeral This Afternoon.

Her funeral services were held at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the Melissa Baptist church, of which she was a charter member. The funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. Ed Ratliffe, assisted by her former pastors, Rev. G. O. Key of McKinney and Rev. Joseph Pearce of Greenville; also assisted by Rev. A. L. Leake of Plano and Dr. M. E. Hudson, pastor of the First Baptist church at McKinney. Prof. R. M. Crabb of McKinney directed the solemn music for the services accompanied on the piano by Mrs. A. L. Leake of Plano, and a large choir of the best voices of Melissa and McKinney. Mrs. T. H. Bryant and Miss Frankie Oates, both of McKinney most impressively sang a duet. The Keller & Crouch Funeral home of McKinney was in charge of the obsequies, which were very largely attended, not only from her home town and vicinity, but also from many other points over the county and state.

Pallbearers were nephews, as follows: J. L. Gibson, W. M. Gibson J. M. Slaughter, G. W. Moore, J. A Lacy, all of Melissa; J. Ed Gibson Aurel Beldon and Dr. Chas. Shumway and her son-in-law, Dr. J. E Hunter, all of McKinney; Dr. C. C York of Princeton and J. A. Webb of Plainview, Texas. Interment followed in the Highland cemetery, where her tired old body was tenderly laid to rest by the side of her husband, who preceded her to the grave many years ago. Many floral offerings covered her grave.

Born at Melissa.

Miss Virginia Russell Graves was born at the old Graves homestead only a few hundred yards from the home where she passed away. She was born April 2, 1855, being, therefore, 74 years and 21 days old at her demise. She was the daughter of the late James M. and Martha (Coffman) Graves, a beloved old pioneer couple, who settled at Melissa in an early day and, as stated, where she was later born. She was reared to young womanhood at Melissa, where she was most happily married June 14, 1875 to F. H. Ogilvie, a young civil engineer, who laid out and platted the town of Melissa, and then became its first merchant. Her husband was an Englishman by birth, who came through this country as a railroad engineer helping to survey the route of the Houston & Texas Central railway, which was built in the early seventies through this county. He made his headquarters in the Melissa vicinity before the town was founded and later came back, married and settled there, where he established himself in business. The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Ogilvie took place June 14, 1875, at the home of her parents at Melissa with the late Rev. T. B. McComb, a beloved old Baptist minister of Van Alstyne, officiating. She had previously, at the age of 17 been converted under his ministry and baptized by him at the Baptist church at Old Highland. Her husband passed away about 35 years ago. She is survived by the following children: Fred C. Ogilvie, assistant cashier of the Melissa National bank; Dr. Henry H. Ogilvie prominent physician and surgeon of San Antonio; Mrs. Henry T. Leigh of Melissa and a foster daughter reared from babyhood, Lucile Braswell, now Mrs. Grady McLain of Foard City, Foard county, West Texas. Two children preceded her to the grave, Willie (Mack) Ogilvie, who passed away a number of years ago, while in the drug business at Galveston, and a daughter, Mrs. Mattie Hunter, the first wife of Dr. J. E. Hunter of McKinney. She is survived by the following grandchildren: Jessie Irene, Evelyn, Dorothy, H. T., Jr., and John Marshall Leigh; Virginia Ogilvie, Frederick Henry (Bobby) Ogilvie and Houston Russell McLain. She is also survived by an aged aunt, Mrs. Texana Riggle of Holdenville, Okla., and two brothers, J. Hugh Graves and George H. Graves, both of Melissa; and a sister, Mrs. Mary Slaughter of Melissa. Another sister, Mrs. John F. Gibson, passed away a number of years ago. Many nephews, nieces, and other relatives survive her death. Mrs. Ogilvie and her husband lived in their home which he erected and furnished before their marriage. She sold this old home only about four or five years ago, and moved closer into town in order to be more convenient to her church and other conveniences, where she spent the latter days of her life under the tender care of her son, Fred C. Ogilvie, and his devoted wife. Her daughter-in-law loved her as tenderly and bestowed every affection on her that could have been given by an own daughter in the flesh. Her son, Dr. Henry H. Ogilvie, came from San Antonio, and was constantly ministering at her bedside during the last days of her illness.

Her Memory Enshrined.

The memory of this good woman will continue to live enshrined in the love of every heart who knew her. The community has lost a great and good woman, whose character and influence will be greatly missed. But the mourning friends will be able to live nobler lives by having known her. She has gone

Where the faded flower shall blossoms,
blossoms never more to fade;
Where the faded sky shall brighten,
brighten never more to shade;
Where the child shall meet its mother, and the mother meet her child
And dear families be gathered that were scattered on the wild.
Dear ones, she shall meet and rest,
mid the holy and the blest.

More pep-speed-power because it's Dry!

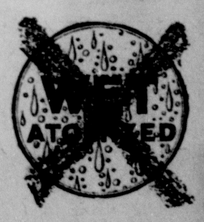
When you stop for gasoline you buy a liquid which either atomizes or vaporizes in the carburetor of your car. Gasolines which merely atomize are called "wet" because the gas formed contains globules of raw gasoline which resist the action of the spark. These unburned drops run down the cylinder walls into the crankcase and "thin out" the oil.

The new and better Texaco is one gasoline which forms a full powered vapor—a "dry" mixture of gasoline and air which ignites instantly and burns completely. Every drop of this "dry" gasoline gives more speed, more pep, more power. It is high test yet costs no more than ordinary. Stop today where you see the Texaco Red Star with the Green T.

THE TEXAS COMPANY, TEXACO PETROLEUM PRODUCTS



1. A "wet gas" is an atomized mixture of gasoline vapor in which are suspended drops of raw gasoline.
2. These drops of raw gasoline resist the action of the spark and will not ignite.
3. Result: — destructive crankcase dilution—difficult starts—slow acceleration—sluggish power.

The NEW and BETTER TEXACO GASOLINE

1. The new and better Texaco vaporizes so readily that it forms a "dry gas"—a volatile mixture of gasoline and air.
2. This pure, "dry gas" responds instantly to the action of the spark.
3. Result:—lightning starts —rapid acceleration—smooth power.

J Jackson, pastor of the colored Baptist church at McKinney, and a large crowd of his members came up from that place. Rev. Jackson delivered a helpful sermon in the afternoon. At the close of the sermon, the rally proper was held and the sum of $160.95 was announced at the close of the count. The members of this church appreciate the wonderful support of their friends and neighbors given them and especially the help of their white friends of this community.

The choir of the colored church at Melissa, by special invitation went to Whiterock on Sunday, April 14, and in the Baptist church at that place gave a musical program, that was especially enjoyed by the large crowd of white people present. The visiting choir sang choruses, quartets and duets.

Joe C. Moore and G. Finfred Moore recently returned from a business trip to points in West Texas, in the interest of their cattle business. They visited at Burkburnett and Decatur. At the latter place they also visited an uncle, Lee Clements, who is now tax assessor of Wise county, but who formerly lived in this community for a number of years. In fact, the Clements creek, about one mile east of Melissa, was named for Mr. Clements. The Messrs. Moore are both progressive and successful Jersey breeders and farmers. Joe Moore has frequently been in charge of exhibits of show cattle at the state fair and other leading fairs of the state. They handle only registered stuff, and are always ready to buy or sell and frequently sell stuff in carload lots.

The livestock business of Joe C. Moore & Sons is a growing concern in the handling and breeding of grade and registered Jersey cattle and in local dairying. They retail their milk to our citizenship twice a day, morning and night. They have an excellent herd of registered dairy cattle, which they use exclusively in their dairying business. They have about fifteen head, all registered, and tested for tuberculosis.

The sons are Murray, about 10 years old and Kenneth, who is only 3. But their father wants to train them in and let them grow up with the business. Moore & Sons have two cows that have grand championship at the Collin County fair; also they own three register of merit cows. Their line of breeding is the You'll Do and the Raleighs. Joe C. Moore is the eldest son of Uncle Bob Moore who lives on his old home farm near the old-time Squeeze Penney mill and gin. Moore & Sons are now loading out two cars of Jersey cattle for shipment to a customer at Chickasha, Okla. They sell a great many Jerseys, and frequently during the year sell as many as a carload at the time as they are doing in this instance.

FORTY-SIXTH YEAR | TWELVE PAGES IN TWO SECTIONS—SECTION ONE McKINNEY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, APRIL 25, 1929.— | ESTABLISHED FEBRUARY 7, 1884.

RECORD FLOOD IS COMING DOWN MISSISSIPPI

SIX KILLED AS PLANES CRASH IN MIDAIR

THIRTY LIVES LOST IN STORMS OVER WEEKEND

SERIES OF FREAKISH WINDSTORMS SWEEP SOUTHWEST SUNDAY

HEAVY TOLL OF DEATH AND PROPERTY DAMAGE LEFT IN WAKE

Kansas City, Mo., April 22—A series of freakish tornadoes and rainstorms swept the Southwest from Texas to Mississippi over the week-end, leaving in their wake crumbling river levees, flooded farm lands and a heavy toll of death and property damages.

Twenty persons were known to have been killed in tornadoes which struck in sections of Kansas, Arkansas and Mississippi. The toll of injured was more than 100.

A break in the Favius River at Canton, Mo., inundated 4,000 acres o frich farm land. The Fabius waters still threatened Quincy, Ill., where a Mississippi River levee was dynamited to divert the flood waters.

Memphis, Tenn., April 22.—Relief organizations cared for thousands of homeless storm and flood refugees as survivors of a freakish tornado that swept through three mid-South States late yesterday prepared to bury their dead today.

The latest disaster of the district was a prankish tornado that originated near Wham in Northern Louisiana, swept through Southeast Arkansas and then spent its strength.

Scores of injured and hundreds of homes in ruins were left in the path of the storm that alternately dipped and lifted over a 150-mile course that at times reached a width of 200 yards. Twenty-two persons, twenty-one of them negroes, were reported killed.

Crippled communication lines prevented an accurate count of the injured, but estimates ran as high as twenty. Greenvile, (Miss.) hospitals cared for forty, McGehee, (Ark.) for thirty-five and other small towns for many more.

Intermediates of Methodist Church Render Program

The Intermediate department of the First Methodist church Sunday school was well attended Sunday morning and an interesting program was given, preceding the reporting of pupils to their classes.

Miss Lorene Ball, teacher in the department, was in charge of the program. Mrs. George Reinhardt is superintendent of this fine group of young christian workers

The girl's quartet of that department—composed of Misses Lucille Funderburgh, Wandy Lynn, Ruth Klattz, and Jean Moseley—pleased their listeners with a special number. Mrs. George Wilson, organist, was at her accustomed place.

An interesting reading was given by Miss Mary Gene Franklin, while a splendid talk was made by Miss Mary Ann Gay. The department had as a visitor, Andrew Golasinoski of Huston Texas, who was here the Houston, Texas, who was here the M. Freshmen baseball team, who played McKinney High a three-game series. He was a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. M. Cooper, while in the city.

John Harris Takes Office In Dallas

Dallas, Texas, April 13.—John C Harris, the only candidate to receive a majority vote at the April 2 election, was sworn in as commissioner Friday morning at 8:58 o'clock in the office of City Attorney J. J. Collins by Earl Goforth, city secretary.

SENDS FORMER HOME PAPER TO F. F. WIGGS

We are under obligations to George Reinhardt, a local business man, for a renewal of the Weekly Democrat-Gazette, which paper he is sending to his friend, F. F. Wiggs, West Helena, Ark. Mr. Wiggs was formerly a prominent plumber and electrician of McKinney, but has been living at Helena for the past several years. We appreciate having him on our list, and also thank Mr. Reinhardt for his patronage.

Woman Dies Under Electric Car at Plano

Mrs. James S. Keller, a young woman of Dallas was instantly killed and her step-mother, Mrs. George Harris of Corpus Christi was painfully injured at 11:50 o'clock this Monday when a Bluebonnet interurban struck the automobile which Mrs. Keller was driving at Aldridge crossing one mile South of Plano.

Mrs. Keller's body was almost severed in twain and one of her arms cut off when the car struck her body.

Mrs. Harris was a daughter of Mrs. E. N. Dinwiddie of near Plano and she and her daughter were coming to Plano to visit Mrs. Dinwiddie when the accident occurred.

Mr. Keller and Mr. Harris and a little grandson of Mr. Harris were riding in another car and had preceded Mrs. Keller and Mrs. Harris, who followed a short distance behind.

The body of Mrs. Keller was removed to the Harrington funeral parlors, where it was prepared for burial.

The presumption is that Mrs. Keller, who was driving the car, and Mrs. Harris, who was riding with her both failed to see the approaching electric car.

Mrs. Dinwiddie's home is located only a few yards from the crossing on the road to the Aldridge golf links.

DISTRICT COURT BEGINS TERM AS JUDGE WILCOX IMPANELS JURY TO CONDUCT CRIME QUIZ

The April term of the Fifty-Ninth District Court opened here Monday morning, presided over by Judge F. E. Wilcox. Impaneling of the grand jury for the term, assignment of cases, and the Court's charge to the jury were principal features of the first morning's session.

The Grand Jurors.

After the list of grand jurors was read by Deputy Sheriff T. W. Franklin, they were sworn in by District Clerk Halsell S. Davis.

The grand jurors selected are:
J. K. Akridge, Desert.
Henry Barlow, McKinney.
W. E. Bowen, Princeton.
W. M. Baker, Blue Ridge.
W. F. Boyd, Lavon.
John Day, Allen,
John Haggard, Plano.
J. Lee Howell, Weston.
Edd O'Neal, Anna.
B. J. Nichols, Celina.
E. M. Rasor, Frisco.
Joe Wallace, Wylie.

The jury commissioners, who were selected by the court at last term of court, are H. G. Giles, Anna; I. S. Proctor, McKinney; J. E. Gibson, McKinney.

The Riding Bailiffs.

W. F. Boyd of Lavon was appointed by the Court as foreman of the grand jury. G. H. Dowlen was sworn in as door bailiff and the following constables of the county were sworn in as riding bailiffs during this term of court:

Paul Yeager.
Joe Usleton.
Ben Marshall.
Jim Wisdom.
Sam Betty.
E. C. (Dink) Meador.
Chas Akins.

Judge Wilcox said that the weeks beginning May 20 and May 27 would be civil jury weeks. Three weeks have been assigned to criminal assignment, the second, third, and fourth weeks, beginning April 29, May 6, and May 13, with possibly another week added to take care of the large number of criminal cases to come up for trial this term of court.

Call Appearance Docket Tuesday

Judge Wilcox announced that the appearance docket would be called tomorrow (Tuesday) morning, April 23, at 10 o'clock.

The usual group of McKinney lawyers and barristers were on hand for the court opening and to hear the assignment of the docket. There was Judge Wilcox on the bench, Court Stenographer James M. Muse and District Clerk Halsell S. Davis at their usual places; Sheriff Ed Blakeman and his deputies, T. W. Franklin and Tully B. Lucas and Claud Vest.

Among the lawyers present were Tom Wallace Hughston, G. R. Smith, L. J. Truett, A. M. Wolford, W. Fred Duncan of Wylie, George P. Brown, R. L. Moulden, Dick Hughston of Dallas, John Doyle John Reese, W. R. Abernathy, H. H. Neilson T. C. Andrews, Mort W. Muse, T. O. Murray, County Judge E. W. Merritt, County Attorney J. E. Abernathy and Assistant County Attorney W. Clarence Dowdy.

Charge to Jury.

"You now constitute the grand jury for this term of court," Judge Wilcox told the twelve above named men who were sworn in as jurors. "You have a solemn duty to perform. I know from the character of the men comprising the jury commission, who selected you, that you are men of the highest type of citizens, and knowing you personally I know that you are men who believe in the enforcement of the law.

"The only way to secure the enforcement of the law," he declared, "and to secure respect for the law is to punish those guilty of violating it."

Judge Wilcox said that his ten years' experience on the bench had convinced him that to punish the criminal was the quickest and surest way to secure respect and obedience for the law. After the criminal is of mature age few have been known to reform, although there is hope for those young in years. The stern lash of the law is the only thing that will stem the practice of law-breaking.

A Duty to Perform.

The Court urged the grand jurors to realize the duty and responsibility they had assumed, urging them to turn in an indictment if they believed one was guilty.

"You have sworn that you will not be guided by hatred, friendship, malice or hope of reward, but that you will decide every question according to the testimony that has been submitted.

He added that this did not mean to indict one merely on suspicion, for one's reputation is a person's greatest asset. But if you have reasonable grounds to believe one is guilty, it is your solemn duty to turn in an indictment.

The jurors were urged to maintain the strictest secrecy of all proceedings inside the jury room.

After the charge to them by the Court, the grand jurors retired to their room to assume charge of the duties before them.

Millinery Store "Dressing Up" For Spring

The front and the interior of Ransom's Millinery establishment are being gone over and brightened up with a fresh spring coating of paint that adds a great deal to the attractiveness of this popular McKinney millinery establishment. W. W. Ransom and wife are proprietors and are to be commended for their civic pride.

BELIEVE STUDENT FLYER'S FEAR TO BE CAUSE OF CRASH

ARMY PURSUIT PLANE AND AIR LINER COME TOGETHER

San Diego, Cal., April 22.—Three agencies began separate investigations today of the mid-air collision between a diving army pursuit airplane and a giant air liner, which carried two veteran pilots and four passengers to death in a canyon near East San Diego late yesterday.

Army officials of Rockwell Field, a coroner and civic board began inquiries of charges that the collision was caused by the daredevil stunt flying of the army flyer, Lieut. Glenn Howard Keefer.

Keefer's single-seated pursuit plane rolling from a power dive, shattered the left wing of the tri-motored Maddux Air line cabin ship and went flashing to the canyon, 2,000 feet below. Keefer escaped from the cockpit of his tiny airplane only to be carried to death when his parachute snagged on a wing and tied him to his crashing plane.

The ponderous passenger ship, shorn of a propellor and its left wing crumpling, rolled and circled as its pilot, Maurice H. Murphy, fought to bring it to a safe land. With a safe landing almost within grasp, the crippled monoplane overturned on the canyon floor.

Hardin, Mont., April 22.—A student flyer's fear was blamed today for the crash of an airplane in the center of Hardin, in which Percy Templeman, 22, of Butte, and Grant J. Wagner, 23, of Whitehall, Wis., were killed.

Trapping its pilot, mechanic and three passengers, the liner crashed several hundred feet from the wreckage of the pursuit plant.

Pilot Murphy, Mechanic Louis K. Pratt and Miss Anita Guajardo were killed instantly. Miss Guajardo's father, Arthur Guajardo of San Diego, prominent Mexican attorney and Miss Cecelia Kelley, Phoneix, Ariz., died in an ambulance.

Witnesses said Lieutenant Keefer apparently was stunting to give the passengers of the liner a thrill and that he had misjudged his distance as he dived from above the liner and attempted a roll upward underneath the larger ship.

Store Proprietor Hurt In Accident

Earl Walker, proprietor of the Walker Hardware & Furniture store, West Louisiana street, is going about with his head bandaged, as the result of a painful accident that occurred one day last week in his store. While endeavoring to jump up behind one of the employes of the store for the purpose or giving them a scare, his head struck a 1x4 on the top of a door in the store, knocking him unconscious for awhile. He is able to be out and at his business as usual and his host of friends here, while regretting to hear of his accident, are glad he is able to be at his accustomed place of business again.

Rapid Progress on Lovejoy Building

Splendid progress is being made on remodeling and rebuilding the Duke & Ayres store, north side of the square. Contract for its rebuilding was recently let by Dr. C. G. Comegys for Mrs. J. L. Lovejoy, owner of the building. Martin & Watkins have the contract.

Brick work has been started on the front, being light brick that will make an attractive store front. T. L. Muirhead, manager of the store, said he expected all the brick work to be completed by Tuesday noon and that the carpenter work would likely be completed this week. After this week, carpenters will begin remodeling and re-arring the interior of the store. When completed it will be one of McKinney's most attractive business houses.

200 HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB WOMEN TO ATTEND SHORT COURSE TO BE HELD AT DENTON COLLEGE

About 200 home demonstration club women of Collin county are planning to attend the third annual short course for women, to be held at the College of Industrial arts, Denton, Thursday, May 2. It will be held in co-operation with the extension service of the A. & M. college of Texas.

Mrs. J. Ed McGee, county home demonstration agent, is enthused over the prospects of a large attendance from Collin county. About 200 women attended last year, and it is expected that at least that many will be present again this year. Collin county was the best represented county at the short course last year.

The program begins at 9 o'clock, May 2, and for the next two hours the ladies will go on an inspection tour of the departments of C. I. A. This will be followed by an address by President L. H. Hubbard of C. I. A. Luncheon will be served at noon in the college dining hall. Fifty cents will be charged for this luncheon and Mrs. McGee urges all demonstration women of this county to take this amount with them.

In the afternoon an original one-act play by the department of speech of C. I. A. will entertain the ladies. Following this, house-building problems will be discussed by Miss Jennie Camp, district home demonstration agent from A. & M. college. Child training problems will also be discussed after which a delightful program will be rendered by the C. I. A. music department.

Mrs. McGee announces that an infant nursery and a nursery for larger children, under the supervision of kindergarten majors, will be established during the day for the convenience of visitors.

This short course is free for all women attending, and anyone interested in going should call Mrs. McGee at once.

TAG DAY FOR LIBRARY CAUSE ADDS TO FUND

BEVY OF PRETTY GIRLS WORK ENTHUSISTICALLY SATURDAY

Tag Day held Saturday for the benefit of the public library support, sponsored by the Federated clubs, drew out a bevy of very active, bright young girl workers who pinned tags on every person donating to that cause. As a result, a substantial cash amount, though not as much as was hoped for, was received for that very worthy cause.

Mrs. J. L. Lovejoy, president of the City Federation, speaking for that organization, extends special thanks to Mrs. T. H. Bryant, chairman, Mrs. A. M. Russell and Miss Audrey Whitwell, the committee on arrangements for handling the day's events. They also extend thanks to the J. P. Dowell store for courtesies extended to the workers. The Federation is also indebted to the following young girls for their splendid work: Addie Brown Benton, Sara Abernathy, Doris Stephens, Madeline Graves, Margaret Moulden, Elizabeth Abernathy, Nannette Gay, Dorothy Mayse Gallagher, Elizabeth Ann Kerby, Maudie Sears, Myra Nell Harris, Mary Younger, Mary Jean Franklin and Jane Woodruff.

Sons at Home; Parents Happy

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Kindle, who reside on South Wilcox street, have been unusually happy the past few days, during which time they have been entertaining four of their sons, who are away from McKinney, all of whom are making good in the business world.

Two of the young men, Leonard and Floyd Kindle, live in Parsons, Kansas, where they hold responsible positions with the Katy railroad. Rex Kindle has been here. He, too, is connected with the Katy railroad in a prominent way, his headquarters being at Denison. The other son, at home on a vacation, is Walter (Pup) Kindle, who holds a responsible position with the City National bank of Corpus Christi.

All four of these young men are well known to a host of McKinney friends, all of whom are glad to see them on their visits back home.

GIANT STREAM REACHES HIGHEST POINT IN HISTORY

FIFTY HOMES UNDER WATER AT CANTON, MO., AS RIVER GOES ON RAMPAGE

Quincy, Ill., April 22.—The Mississippi river reached its highest point in history here today when it rose to 21 feet. Fully 500 men residing along the levee district were rushed to strategic points to strengthen weakening levess, as word that the Mississippi was on another rampage—the third of this spring—was flashed along sixty miles of levee front.

Answering the plea of officers here, Adjutant General Carlos Black today ordered out Company G, Illinois National guard infantry of Quincy. The troop was assigned to South Quincy district, where the water is within a foot of the levee top.

St. Louis, Mo., April 22.—The Mississippi river will reach the highest flood stage in seventy-five years, U. S. Weather bureau observers and veteran rivermen in this vicinity predicted today after a survey of stages of tributaries showed extensive rains had caused serious floods in Canton and other Missouri Points.

A Mississippi River levee was dynamited in an effort to divert the Fabius river flood away from the Quincy (Ill.) dikes, weakening rapidly the extensive improvements completed there since the 1927 Mississippi flood.

OVER FIFTY HOMES ARE UNDER WATER

Canton, Mo., April 22.—With more than fifty homes already under water from crumbling Mississippi river levees and highway and rail traffic virtually paralyzed, residents in bottom lands here prepared for the worst flood in seventy-five years, predicted by United States Weather bureau observers.

The waters continued to rise today, rapidly increasing the area under water as they neared a crest expected some time this afternoon.

No loss of life was reported and authorities were moving families from homes within the danger zone.

Legionnaires Gain Distinction as Post

Jimmie Geigas Post No. 96, which meets every Monday night at their meeing quarters in the city hall, has the distinction of being one of the best-organized, best functioning and active posts in the state.

Recently the post received a certificate of meritorious service from Paul McNutt, national commander; Rufus Scott, state commander; Ross R. Cole, state adjutant; and Mr. Barton, national adjutant.

This award is a citation for faithfulness in performance of duties, meriting the confidence and esteem of the national organization. Jimmie Geigas post has been lending its heartiest co-operation in the fostering of legion work over this city and county. This is the first time this coveted award has ever been received by the local group of former service men.

Some of the officers of the local legion group are T. W. Franklin, post commander; Roy L. Brockman, finance officer; and Phil Wolford, adjutant. Jimmie Geigas post is always engaged in some work in behalf of the community and frequently presents plays, minstrels and other forms of entertainment for the entertainment of citizens of the city and county. The minstrel presented by them only a few months ago was declared the best in the history of McKinney.

PRESIDENT AIDS EXTENSON SERVICE.

President Herbert Hoover has accepted honorary chairmanship of the National Committee which directs the organization of agricultural activities of the 4-H Club girs and boys. In accepting this position President Hoover made this significant comment upon the usefulness of our 4-H Club work: "The work of the 4-H Clubs is fundamental. It is bringing about a more economic production of all agricultural products; it is improving rural homes; it is developing rural leadership, molding character and building citizenship. Therefore, I accept with pleasure the honorary chairmanship of the national committee on Boys' and Girls' Club work, which has for its purpose the extension of the membership of the clubs, so that additional thousands of boys and girls may be given greater opportunity for development and achievement."

PARISGRAFS, BY PAT MAYSE.

The Paris Morning News, which has just recently passed into the ownership of Pat Mayse and associates is showing many improvements. Associated Press Printer are being installed and the full leased wire of the A. P. will be taken. Expansion of the local news service is also planned and already there are many evidences of improvement in the news and advertising columns. A column, ostensibly for an expression of the editor on random local subjects, appears on the first page under this heading: "Parisgrafs—Locally Speaking—'In every work that he began he did it with all his heart—and prospered." Among Parisgrafs we find this little cheerful note: "Smile at your neighbor and exchange greetings, even though you may see him often. Paris is, without doubt, a friendly city—far above the average. But we can be even better by practicing the friendly spirit on one another day in and day out. Happy, cordial, friendly people have a better chance to succeed than the grouches have."

YOUR HOME TOWN

MODERN PHRASES.

It's funny how phrases can get strated and go the rounds of a city or nation, even, before giving way to a new expression. For instance, on our streets at present, scores of boys in friendly argument or scuffle will invariably come forth with this remark: "Don't cause me no trouble." And another of our young men will always sail: "I'll grab you." But in our recollection we don't ever remember of his "grabbing" anyone yet. Of course, it's all in fun. We spoke some time ago about those boys who were wearing the bright colored hats and caps, of green, red, yellow, orange, purple, blue, etc. Well, if you want to learn some new expressions and remarks (yes, we suppose they're slang) just listen to a group wearing these gaily-colored head pieces. Every city has its group of young people, who must have their fun. We believe our city is fortunate in that most of its young people, while modern in every respect, are the highest type of boys and girls, having high ideals before them all the time toward which they are advancing as they go through the McKinney public schools and college.

WHERE YOU'LL FIND THEM.

Now that district court is in session, if you want to find any McKinney barrister who's not in his office, then in all probability you'll find him over at the court house. That statement will likely hold true ration of the present April term for the next seven weeks—the duof court.

A BEAUTIFUL SIGHT.

Our flower gardens are blooming in all their fragrance and beauty at present. In driving over the city we see a myriad of colors in the yards of roses, geraniums and—but why name them all? Perhaps you have all of them in your own yard. But aren't they beautiful? There's no use for you to idle away any spare time you might have on hand. Just drive or stroll about the city and see the gorgeous flower gardens which may be seen in all parts of the city. It is a sight well worth seeing.

SHARE THEM WITH OTHERS.

However, just as a man can not be happy alone, these flowers should not be enjoyed alone. Here's what we man; share these blooming plants with others. Take a bouquet to a sick friend or to the shut-in. Give a handful to the small child who, passing by, has stopped to admire them. That's why God permits us to have such lovely blooming plants about our homes—to make others happy and cheerful. If you keep them to yourself, never giving a bouquet away, then you're about the most selfish person we know. Perhaps your neighbor would like a bouquet. And do you have some in your home, in every room? Flowers are beautiful in your yard; but they're more beautiful when they're adorning the room of some sick friend or shut-in. Give some of these beautiful blooming plants away and see how happy you will be.

WHAT WE HAVE AT HOME.

You can talk all you care about balmy spring days and moonlight nights of far-away and distant lands. But right here in McKinney the days and nights in this beautiful spring-time are just as beautiful as we could hope to see. How about Monday? A perfect day, to our way of thinking. And last night. It was perfect, if ever there has been a perfect night. The moon glistening on the foliage about the home presented a scene of glamour and a weird atmosphere that caused one to want to stay out in the open.

WHAT THE INDIANS THINK.

Waxahachie, who comes here Thursday to play our boys a three-game series, is all pepped-up and enthused over the games. They believe they are going to have an easy time with our boys. Perhaps so; perhaps not. The Lions are going to put up a fight such as the Indians have never before experienced. In fact, to tell you the truth, the Lions are planning to win the series! Of course, you'll see these games. It will be a series you simply cannot afford to miss. You'll see some of the best baseball games in your life if you see the Lions and Indians play.

BEAUTIFUL MCKINNEY AYRDS.

There's one home on North Church street, this city, that invariably attracts the attention of the passer-by and causes every one passing to utter some favorable comment on the beauty of the place. It is the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Larson, North Church street. The front and side of the home are literally covered by hundreds of blooms from climbing American Beauty roses. It is a scene for the artist to depict and one which words fail us in attempting to give it a true and accurate description. Equally as beautiful is the rose garden in the yard of the Larson home. We have seen pretty homes and attractive yards, but these roses make of the Larson home one of the most beautiful in the entire city.

METHODISTS TO SUPPORT WESLEY AT GREENVILLE

PROPOSAL TO BE PRESENTED TO CONFERENCE IN McKINNEY

Greenville, Texas, April 20.—Bishop Sam R. Hay, his cabinet for the North Texas conference and prominent ministers and laymen Friday at Celeste adopted resolutions stressing the fact that Wesley college of Greenville should be continued as one of the major educational institutions of the Methodist denomination of Texas. The occasion was the meeting of the Greenville district of the North Texas Methodist conference.

This action was the first specific move that has been taken toward guaranteeing the liquidation of Wesley college's indebtedness and the continuation of the institution along the plans which have been fostered by its supporters since its establishment, according to those who are in close touch with the situation.

The proposal as advocated in the resolutions will be presented to the annual meeting of the North Texas conference at McKinney in October.

Friday's meeting was presided over by Bishop May. Others in attendance included C. A. Spragins, Greenville, W. J. Johnston, Wichita Falls; the Rev. George French, Denton; The Rev. Ira A. Kiker, Paris district; the Rev. W. T. Whiteside, Decatur district; the Rev. San. Marcus, Sulphur Springs district; the Rev. H. G. Mood, McKinney district, and A. J. Weeks, Sherman district.

MRS. W. C. BURRUS IS VISITING OKLAHOMA RELATIVES

Mrs. W. C. Burrus has greatly improved in health recently, and is now visiting her sister, Mrs. H. K. Wallace, and her nephew, Ed F. Wallace, both at 911 North 6th street, Durant, Okla. Mrs. Burrus was in the McKinney City hospital for several weeks, then she later recuperated in the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Burrage on North Waddill Street. Her many old home friends are glad to learn of her continued improvement in health. She is one of our city's most beloved old ladies. She is keeping up with home folks by reading the Courier-Gazette every day which is being sent to her address at Durant.

CITY NEWS BRIEFS

Miss Helen Geren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Geren, on South Tennessee street, took suddenly ill Saturday afternoon, but is getting along nicely.

Hunt Bowlby has been confined to his home for several days on North Tennessee street. This will be unwelcome news to his many friends. However, he is doing nicely now, and will soon be up and out again.

J. D. Bailey and family who have been residing on Route 6, have moved to McKinney and live at 908 North Kentucky street. McKinney gains a good family in their moving to our city.

S. H. Taylor, Sr., is very ill at the home of his son, J. H. Taylor, Jr., on Waddill street. Mr. Taylor recently returned from Panama and other Southern countries.

Judge H. O. Head of Sherman has been seriously ill for the last few days with pneumonia. Judge Head is one of the most distinguished jurists of North Texas, who is quite well known in Collin county. He is a former judge of the higher courts of our state. His many friends are anxious to learn of his improvement and restoration to health again.

Mrs. J. S. Carlisle, has returned from a few days' visit to the bedside of her brother-in-law, L. L. Jobe, in Sherman. Her daughters, Misses Susie, and Bessie Carlisle, of this city, and Mrs. H. C. Marshall of Dallas all drove up to Sherman Saturday, where they spent the day, accompanying their mother home that evening. Mrs Carlisle reports her brother to be improving.

Mrs. W. B. Hornbeck has returned to her home at Lone Wolf, Okla., after spending a week with her brother, former County Tax Collector Henry E. Morgan, and wife in McKinney. When she departed, she was accompanied as far as Dallas on her way by her three nieces, Mrs. Edgar Bush, of Allen; Mrs. Tom Morgan of McKinney and Mrs. M. L. Flennikan of Camp San Saba, Texas, who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan, here for a few days in the city.

Mrs. W. M. Press has returned to her home in McKinney from a visit to Celina, where she was a guest of Mrs. John Stallcup and the latter's son, Dr. Walter Stallcup and family. She also visited Mrs. Bob Blane and Chas. H. Wilson, the latter being postmaster there. Mrs. Press enjoyed her visit to Celina very much. All crops, gardens and flowers in that community, she says, are looking fine. The grain is looking good and Celina realty and truly has a right to boast of its pretty flowers and gardens.

Respected Pioneer Couple.

Another honored farm couple among the surviving pioneer settlers of North Collin, we will mention Mr. and Mrs. Osburn Slaughter who reside on their old home place, 2½ miles southwest of Anna, where they have resided all of their married life of nearly fifty-one years. Mr. Slaughter was born in Russell county, Kentucky, Nov. 11, 1850, being the son of J. H. and Minerva Slaughter. He came to Texas when he was a small child with his parents, who settled on the "Pappy" J. H. Slaughter home place, near where the old Highland Baptist church stood. Osburn Slaughter had one brother, the late W. P. Slaughter, and two sisters, Mrs. C. H. Wysong and Mrs. Desoto Collins, both also now deceased. The sister, Mrs. C. H. Wysong, was the mother of Hamp Wysong, Melissa banker, and Dr. W. S. Wysong, widely known McKinney physician and surgeon, and also Mrs. J. H. Graves and Mrs. H. H. Griffin, both now living here in Melissa. Mrs. Osburn Slaughter was born Oct. 12, 1852 in Russell county, Kentucky. She was the daughter of Dr. W. D. Lair, pioneer North Collin doctor. Her maiden name was Miss Maria Narcissus Lair. She was only 5 years old when her parents moved from Kentucky to Texas, and settled near old Mantua, in 1857. She was reared on her father's farm about 1½ miles west of Anna and for three years attended school at an academy at Ladonia Texas. She was united in marriage, May 9, 1878 at the home of her father, Dr. Lair at an old-fashioned infair dinner. Three children were born to their happy marriage. One son, Everett Slaughter, a substantial farmer of near Anna, whose wife was formerly Miss Annie Laurie Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. (Book) Wilson of McKinney. Mr. and Mrs. O. Slaughter's other two children are Mrs. M. C. Powell of Anna and Miss Helen Slaughter, who for several years has been connected with the Singer Sewing Machine company at Dallas in a responsible position.

Mr. and Mrs. Slaughter were a success on the farm, reared a fine family of children and in their declining days are living in the love of their children and other relatives and the universal esteem of their wide circle of neighbors and friends in this section of the county.

The commencement exercises were Friday night at 8 o'clock at the Methodist church.

Last Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock the Panthers of the Princeton High school gathered at the home of their coach, T. R. Williams for their last entertainment of the school year. Because of inclement weather four of the Panthers did not leave their dens to join in our feast, but even though our Panther circle was broken we did ample justice to the eats, which were served in three courses, the menu was: Half an orange, mint pineapple center, pressed chicken, parsley potatoes, creamed peas, vegetable salad, Parker House rolls, Russian tea, strawberry ice cream, Angel food cake.

Each Panther in turn told of his experiences on the athletic field and of the benefits he received from that work.

The three medals which were won at the Collin County Interscholastic league meet were presented to those Panthers who won them. Last but not least our coach gave a talk on "The Development of Mankind Through Athletics." Those present were Chester Sauls, Loyce BeBow, Austin Rawlings, Owen Miller, John Craver, Quimby Turner, Russell Wilson, Harvey Cobb, Howard Donihoo, Jack Donihoo, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Williams and Miss Lora B. Williams. At 11 o'clock we said goodbye and departed for their homes.

TENANT FARMERS BECOMING MORE THRIFTY, OBSERVERS SAY IN LEWISVILLE VICINITY

TENANT FARMERS BECOMING

Lewisville, Texas, April 20.—The farm tenant of today is more thrifty than he was ten years ago, according to B. F. Tunnell, principal of the Lewisville schools and instructor in vocational agriculture. It is Mr. Tunnell's opinion that the law of the "survival of the fit" will ultimately settle the farm tenant question. Tenants who will not learn modern methods of diversified farming will seek employment in factory or as day laborers, and landlords who insist on a one-crop program will be forced to sell out or abandon their farms.

Mr. Tunnell is certain that this plan is at work in the Lewisville community, and his opinion is verified by local bankers. Local loans of Lewisville banks are $105,000 less than they were a year ago. Deposits are lower by $50,000. "Our farmers are becoming more thrifty' because they have had to practice thrift," A. Hays, cashier of the Lewsville State bank, told a representative of the News. "Our community is becoming more nearly self-supporting," he continued. "Ten years ago our bank generally borrowed $50,000 to $70,000 for use in this community. Last year we borrowed only $10,000, and we expect to get through 1929 without borrowing a dollar."

Business in Lewisville is "quiet." Crops are late, but promising. There is a feeling of optimism, largely due to the fact that a great many people have paid their obligations and are now free from a burden which many of them have been carrying since the period of high prices immediately following the World war.

"Diversified farming" is the answer to the "why" of this situation. When the local cream station was organized in Lewisville in November, 1927, only seventeen farmers were selling cream. A recent check showed that thirty-seven farmers are patronizing the cream station in Lewisville, while seventeen were shipping cream.

FEAR DISEASE MAY FOLLOW RIVER FLOOD

MANY CASES REPORTED FROM NORTHERN ARKANSAS

Little Rock, Ark., April 20.—Northeastern Arkansas, hardly recovered from effects of a tornado which took more than fifty lives and devastated parts of six counties and suffering from spring overflows of many of its streams faced the menace of disease today.

A State Health department bulletin issued yesterday listed seventy-three meningitis cases and sixteen deaths from the disease in the last few weeks. Health measures were said to be greatly hampered by the conditions imposed by floods and storms. Many of the cases were reported from the area laid waste by the tornado two weeks ago, where conditions of sanitation still were bad.

"The situation present a serious problem to state, county and city health authorities," Dr. C. W. Garrison, state health officer, said.

GERANIUM KILLS BEETLE THAT IS FLOWER PEST

Japanese beetles, one of the dreaded pests of the gardener, are fatally affected by the leaves or flowers of ordinary geraniums, Charles H. Ballou of the department of agriculture has discovered, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. Dissection has shown that the geranium destroys a part of the beetle's digestive tract within twenty-four hours, and that all the soft contents of the body cavity are disintegrated within forty-eight hours.

SENATE BOARD REFUSES TO CALL EVANGELIST AS WITNESS

Sacramento, Calif., April 18.—Defense attorneys in the impeachment trial of Superior Judge Carlos S Hardy were puzzled today by the "surprise move" of the senate prosecuting board in refusing to call Aimee Semple McPherson as a prosecution witness.

The fiery-haired Angelus Temple evangelist, whose mysterious disappearance three years ago eventually led to the present impeachment trial of her friend, Judge Hary, was definitely excused as a prosecution witness by the senate board in a signed statement.

The statement in part said that "at a hearing in Los Angeles Mrs. McPherson proved an unwilling and evasive witness and the board feels that it is not desirable to further consume the time of the senate in examining a witness who, at most, will only state facts already proven, and then only after an examination in the nature of a cross-examination."

Attorney Rex Hardy, son of the accused jurist, was "suspicious" of the prosecution move.

"We will reserve our decision on calling Mrs. McPherson until later, when we figure out what the assembly board of managers is trying to do," young Hardy said.

Mrs. McPherson was subpenaed by the prosecution and for ten days has been kept waiting to tell her story of the $2,500 "love gift" which the state charges Judge Hardy illegally accepted as a legal fee from Angelus Temple for counsel given the evangelist during the investigations of her disappearance.

High School Class Inspects Print Shop

Our office received a welcome call from the high eighth science class of the L. A. Scott Junior High school about press time Wednesday afternoon. Miss Lillian Rickman, the instructor, accompanied the group.

The writer conducted the visitors through the office, showing the route a story goes from the time it is written until it comes out in the afternoon daily newspaper. All the students appeared interested in their visit.

With Miss Rickman the following members of the class were here: Miss Juanita O'Dell, Leon Burke, Jesse Clarkson, Harry Smith, Doyle Harris, Vince Addington. Elmo Addington, Elmer Gay, Webb Dale, Melvin Gantt, Charley Wysong, C. H. Brown, and Sam Forshee. Two members, Jesse Cleveland and E. W. Morton, were not present.

We welcome them to our office and hope that they will come back to see us again.

Dr. E. L. Burton Back In Office

Dr. E. L. Burton, who has been sick for several weeks, has steadily improved recently to the extent that he is now able to be back in his practice again. Dr. Burton has been a successful eye, ear, nose and throat specialist in McKinney for a number of years, building up an immense practice spread out over this and other counties in the state and also portions of Oklahoma. He recently secured the services of Dr. Bryce Miller as an associate in his large and growing practice.

JAMES T. MORRIS TO RE-OPEN CAFE TUESDAY

James T. Morris, who had the misfortune to be bereft of his wife, who died early Saturday morning, April 13, expects to re-open his place of business on South Tennessee street, Tuesday, April 23. Mr. Morris and his wife have been conducting their cafe business in McKinney for sixteen years. Mr. Morris has the sympathy of many patrons and friends in the crushing bereavement that has overtaken him.

Rodgers Funeral Service Largely Attended Sunday

C. S. Rodgers, 52 years 6 months and 4 days old, who died Saturday afternoon at 1:15 o'clock was laid to rest in Pecan Grove cemetery Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The funeral service was held at the family residence on North Kentucky street, conducted by Rev. T. F. Huffman, pastor of the North McKinney Baptist church. There were many beautiful floral offerings, and one of the largest attended funerals here recently.

He was born at Morristown, Tenn., Oct. 15, 1877, being the son of William and Sarah (Blanton) Rodgers, who moved their family to Texas forty years ago, where they lived for many years on the E. A. Newsome farm, near White's Grove.

The deceased was married to Miss Millie Mills Dec. 3, 1899 at Forest Grove by Rev. W. T. Newsom, now of Pike.

He is survived by his wife and the following children: Andy Rodgers of McKinney, Mrs. Lee Thomas of Sherman, Mrs. Earl Orenduff of the Trinity school house community, and four unmarried daughters, Willie, Charlie Lou, Goldie Laura, and Edna, all at home. He is also survived by two brothers, Audy Rodgers of Nebras, and Clinton Rodgers of McKinney, and two sisters, Mrs. Ida Massie and Mrs. Pattie Payne, both of Sherman.

The pallbearers were six brothers of Mrs. Rodgers, as follows: Jeff Mills, H. G. Mills, E. F. Mills, Roscoe Mills, Walter Mills, Tully Mills, all of McKinney.

The funeral arrangements were under the direction of the Keller & Crouch Funeral home.

C. S. Rodgers, for the last three years an employee on Street Commissioner D. W. Bagwill's force, died at 1:15 o'clock this afternoon at his late home, 720 North Kentucky street. The deceased was taken suddenly ill early this morning and remained in an unconscious condition until he passed away.

He was born at Morristown, Tenn., Oct. 15, 1877, being the son of William and Sarah (Blanton) Rodgers, who moved with their family to Texas forty years ago. They lived many years on the Ed Newsome farm near White's Grove.

The deceased was married to Miss Lillie Mills Dec. 3, 1899 at Forest Grove by Rev. W. T. Newsome, now of Pike, Texas.

He is survived by his wife and the following children: Andy Rogers of McKinney; Mrs. John R. Welch of Ardath; Mrs. Lee Thomas of Sherman; Mrs. Earl Orenduff of the Trinity school house community north of McKinney, and four unmarried daughters, Willie, Charlie Lou, Goldie and Laura Edna, all at home. He is also survived by two brothers, Audy Rodgers of Nebraska and Clinton Rodgers of McKinney, and also two sisters, Mrs. Ida Massie and Mrs. Patie Payne, both of Sherman.

The deceased was an industrious laboring man and farmer, who had spent all of his mature life in and around McKinney. In his younger days he professed religion and united with the Methodist church. He is survived by many relatives and friends who mourn his premature death.

Funeral services will be conducted at 4 o'clock tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon at the family residence on North Kentucky street by Rev. T. F. Huffman. Interment will follow in the Pecan Grove cemetery on the family burying lot. The burial arrangements are under the direction of Keller & Crouch Funeral home.

DECORATION AT MELISSA ON MAY 1

The annual decoration at the Melissa cemetery will be observed Wednesday, May 1, it has been announced here. All who have loved ones or friends buried there are urged to attend this observance and assist in decorating the graves of departed loved ones.

Mrs. James M. Smith, Route 3, Edmond, Okla, renews for the Democrat-Gazette for another year in advance. Mrs. Smith and her late husband lived a short distance southeast of McKinney for many years until his death a few years ago. She greatly appreciates reading her old home family newspaper every week.

Funeral Of Mrs. S. T. Stout At Van Alstyne

The funeral services of Mrs. S. T. Stout, 77, who died Tuesday morning at the home of her son, agent for the Texas Electric Railway at Van Alstyne, was held Thursday afternoon at the First Methodist Church at that place. Services were conducted by the Rev. F. B. Wheeler of Dallas, the Rev. A. A. Kidd, pastor of the First Methodist Church at Van Alstyne, and the Rev. R. T. Percifal, pastor of the First Methodist Church at Howe.

Mrs. Stout was born Jan. 29, 1852, in Subligna, Ga. She was married Jan. 30, 1873. In December, 1894, she, with her family, came to Grayson County, locating at Howe, living there until two years ago, when she and her husband came to Van Alstyne and have since made their home with their son, O. A. Stout. Besides her husband, she is survived by four children: Mrs. G. W. Young and H. T. Stout of Howe, W. D. Stout of Sherman and O. A. Stout of Van Alstyne, and by eight grandchildren.

MRS. R. W. BURRAGE IS HOME FROM LUBBOCK

Mrs. Richard W. Burrage came in Wednesday evening from a several weeks' visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Nail, at Lubbock, Texas, where they have been temporarily staying since last October. Mr. and Mrs. Nail make their home in McKinney, but during the cotton season, Mr. Nail was temporarily located at Lubbock, where he and his talented young wife had [illegible] Mr. Nail is a prominent young cotton merchant, who is quite active in the business. He will go back and forth from McKinney to Dallas every day now where his cotton headquarters are located. Mr. Nail will probably begin his 1929 cotton buying season in the Rio Grande Valley section. While Mrs. Burrage has been away, her husband has been at the home of his sister, Miss Minnie Burrage, former county clerk. Dick says home is too lonesome a place for him to stay long without his women folks. This editor, and we believe most all other men folks, are of the same opinion as our good friend, Dick.

MRS. V. A. FINLEY ENJOYS OLD HOME NEWS

The Democrat-Gazette is going weekly to Mrs. V. A. Finley at the Confederate Women's home at Austin. She is the widow of the late C. A. Finley, a Confederate veteran, who passed away a few years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Finley lived for a number of years on their little farm two miles northeast of McKinney in the Woodlawn community. Mrs. Finley is a fine old lady, who has a host of home friends in and around McKinney, who are glad to know that she is very happily situated. Mrs. Finley greatly enjoys her old home town and county news as read in the columns of our paper each week. Mrs. Sid J. Thomas is superintendent of the Confederate Women's home at Austin. Mrs. Thomas is the widow of a popular newspaper editor formerly of Comanche, Texas, but who passed away a number of years ago. Sid J. Thomas was president of the Texas Press association for a number of years. This editor became a member of that organization under his administration.

MEDALS AND TROPHIES FOR WINNERS GIVEN

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR OF COUNTY MEET HERE TO DELIVER THEM

Prof. N. O. Wright, principal of the Blue Ridge school, who was in charge of athletics in the recent Collin County interscholastic league meet in this city, was a business visitor in McKinney Saturday, accompanied by Mrs. Wright, coming here to bring the medals and trophies for the winners in the track and field events of the county meet.

He has already delivered the medals and trophies to McKinney, Farmersville, Blue Ridge, Princeton, and Melissa. The medals for Nevada, Chambersville, Blue Ridge, Princeton and Melissa. The medals for Nevada, Chambersville and Copeville were left at County Superintendent S. C. Stephens' office.

Prof. Wright is one of the county's best-known and most competent educators. He is doing a splendid work at Blue Ridge and made an excellent official in charge of athletics at the recent county meet.

BABY REPORTED KILLED BY STORM AT CLEBURNE

TORNADO STRIKES FRIDAY EVENING IN JOHNSON COUNTY

Cleburne, Texas, April 20.—A 7-month-old baby is reported to have been killed and several persons injured at 7:30 Friday evening by a tornado that struck the Sand Flat community five miles southeast of here on the Grandview road.

A search through the darkness for the injured was conducted by residents of the community, aided by rescue workers from Cleburne.

An ambulance brought two injured persons to the Cleburne sanitarium and returned to the scene of the twister on hearing the baby had been killed. Names of the injured had not been learned here several hours after the storm.

The storm was accompanied by a heavy rain. At Cleburne the streets stood two feet deep in water in many places.

PRETTY LITTLE DAUGHTER FORMER NEWSPAPER WOMAN

Mrs. Floyd S. Nelson and pretty little daughter, Mae Ruth, of Dallas have been visiting their parents and grandparents, former Senator and Mrs. Henry A. Finch. Mrs. Nelson, accompanied by her little daughter, came to this office for a brief visit. Mae Ruth is just beginning to talk and is unusually friendly with everyone and a favorite with all. Mr. Nelson is vice-president and salesmanager of the Buchanan Investment company of Dallas, and is a native of McKinney as is his wife, who was formerly Miss Ruth Finch. We hope to have the pleasure of a visit again soon from pretty little Miss Mae Ruth and her mother, who was formerly a member or the staff of these papers.

QUICK ACTION RECOVERS CAR FOR SHERMAN PARTY

FIREMAN BELDON AND BROTHER GRAB YOUNGSTER QUICKLY

Some speedy work was turned in by Aurel Beldon, driver for the volunteer fire department of this city, and Jimmie Beldon, local Times-Herald representative, Thursday night.

About 9:15 Mr. Beldon received a call from Night Sergeant Rigsby at Sherman saying that a 1928 model Whippet sedan had been stolen there, belonging to Mrs. J. B. Montgomery and daughter, Miss Bernice Montgomery.

Within seven minutes the car was at the city hall and the driver under arrest. Mr. Beldon, on receiving the telephone call, took the number of the car and presently a young man drove by the city hall in the car stolen at Sherman. Jimmie Beldon gave chase and soon caught the man.

Chief of Police Holcomb of Sherman, accompanied by Mrs. Montgomery and daughter, came down Friday morning taking the car back to Sherman with them. The car was not impaired in any way. The young man arrested was Herbert Nickels, 16, who said he was on his way from St. Louis to San Antonio. While passing through Sherman he saw this Whippet parked in front of the Montgomery home on North Grand avenue and having some car keys with him, found one that would work in the car. He drove off toward McKinney, being arrested here and taken to Sherman Friday.

EQUIPMENT ADDED TO LADIES REST ROOM AT COURT HOUSE

CITY FEDERATION AIDS IN PROCURING NEEDED IMPROVEMENTS

The Ladies' Rest Room in the court house has recently had many new fixtures added and a visit there Friday morning revealed much new equipment in the room, shown us by the gracious and affable Mrs. J. S. Rollins, in charge of the room.

The City Federation, Mrs. Rollins and the Commissioners' Court is responsible for the improvements. Mrs. J. L. Lovejoy, president of the City Federation, and other members of that organization, with Mrs. Rollins, recently appeared before Judge E. W. Merritt and the Commissioners' Court, asking for some needed equipment, which has been furnished by the Court.

The new improvements consist of linoleum on the floor, a new table, settee, flowers and wall baskets. A picture painted by Miss Ruby Recer, pupil of Frank Klepper, of Dallas, has also been added to the room's equipment.

Mrs. Rollins wishes to thank the Commissioners' Court and the City Federation for adding this much-needed equipment to the rest room, that is daily visited by scores of ladies from all over the county and by visitors and tourists in the city. It affords visitors a comfortable and convenient place to rest while they are in McKinney. Everyone has a cordial invitation to visit the rest room at any time they desire.

ALTOGA BUSINESS MAN BELIEVES IN MORE JERSEYS

JOHN WATKINS SAYS COLLIN NEEDS MORE OF THEM

John Watkins, a leading Altoga citizen and business man, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. Watkins busy, sells and raises a great many Jersey cattle, both grade and registered animals. He states that there is a very active, ready market for any surplus Jerseys that may be offered for sale, and at excellent prices.

In his opinion our farmers are overlooking an inviting opportunity in the way of a side-line when they are not raising more good, well-Jersey cattle to help supply the demand upon the county.

Grain is looking well, corn is up to a good stand and being plowed, much cotton has already been planted. Farmers are catching up fairly well with their belated spring work, and the land is in a good state of cultivation for young and growing crops.

As a whole, he thinks farmers are in a more hopeful spirit than ordinarily at this time, on account of their present favorable business outlook for them this year.

Chicken Theft In Foote Community

W. M. Cox, living in the Foote community, west of McKinney, had fifteen chickens stolen from his farm home Monday night of this week. The theft has been reported to Sheriff Ed Blakeman and his force of deputies. No clue has been found as to the identity of the night visitors.

BAILEY FAMILIAR FIGURE IN McKINNEY; INCIDENTS IN FORMER SENATOR'S EARLY CAMPAIGNS HERE

BY E. J. PARKER, in Sherman Democrat

Joseph Weldon Bailey has passed on, and there is none to take his place. A person did not have to agree with Joe Bailey to admire him. In point of ability, powers of oratory and personality, he had no superior.

Launching into politics soon after his arrival in Texas from Mississippi, his first appearance that attracted the attention of the older politicians of the day was at Decatur, county seat of Wise county, where he was a delegate to the congressional convention. Judge Silas Hare of Sherman and Colonel Pickett, a strong West Texas man, were the candidates before the convention, and for several days it was tied. During the intervals between votes, at the request of the delegates and the hundreds of visitors present, Joe Bailey was called on to speak. He was only about 24 years old, but he not only entertained the convention, but made a deep impression on all, who saw in him one of the coming men of the day.

A few years later, about forty-two years ago, he made his first appearance in Sherman, speaking in the old opera house. He came here on the invitation of a number of women who were interested in local option for Grayson county, and spoke against the liquor traffic.

Judge Hare Opponent.

Thirty-nine years ago he made the race for congress from the old Fourth Congressional district. Judge Silas Hare was his opponent. Perhaps no two greater men ever met on the rostrum in North Texas. Judge Hare was a persuasive talker, a man of great analytical ability, and his power before a jury was as great as any man of his day. Bailey was brilliant, his voice was well rounded and carried to the uttermost parts of the room or to the outside crowds. He plead for a return to Jeffersonian Democracy, which he claimed was being forgotten. He stood for state's rights and opposed a centralized government. He made it a point to tell his hearers that he believed that each county should conduct its affairs without hindrance by the state, and that each state should conduct its affairs. At that time he was strong for sixteen-to-one as it related to the financial affairs of the nation. He was versed on the tariff and was opposed to the Republican tariff plan.

The campaign was waged in every county in the district except Grayson and Cooke. Judge Hare did not enter Grayson. Collin county was the last county in which the men campaigned. They rode together in the same spring wagon to their appointments, and stopped at the same hotels.

Collin Campaign.

All of the counties, one by one, had gone for Bailey, and Collin county was the battle ground, for Collin and Grayson had as many votes in the convention as the other counties combined. At every speaking appointment in Collin county there were great crowds. It was not unusual to see 1,000 people at any inland speaking place, which generally was at some school house.

As an indication of the interest, on one occasion near Murphy, after a hard day's drive in the sun and dust, as the wagon neared that place a group of farmers, among whom were a number of women and children, were seen coming from the fields with their hoes on their shoulders. Judge Hare proposed that the wagon, which was driven by Sterling Coffey of McKinney, stop. Bailey objected, saying that he was tired and anxious to get to a place where he could "wash up" and rest awhile before the speaking. However, Judge Hare insisted and when the people from the field came up, Judge Hare said: "Where will the speaking tonight be held?" The school house was pointed out, and Judge Hare spoke again. This time he asked a question: "Who are the people down here for?" and the answer came: "We are for Joe Bailey." Judge Hare spoke again. This time told: "Judge Hare has been voting with the Republicans."

It developed that, in passing on some of the local bills affecting the city of Washington, Judge Hare and all the other Democrats in congress had voted along with Republican members of the body.

The wagon drove on, and a short distance away another army of cotton choppers came out. This time Joe Bailey suggested that the wagon stop, and this time Judge Hare urged that they hurry to their hotel. But the wagon was stopped and this time Joe Bailey asked the question, and the result was the same as at the previous stop.

Debate at McKinney.

The last meeting of these two intellectual giants was at McKinney on the day the primaries were held. Joe Bailey opened the debate. When Judge Hare attempted to reply Bailey's friends kept calling his name. Joe Bailey arose, insisted that Judge Hare should be heard and plead for quiet. Judge Hare began his speech and probably had talked for fifteen minutes when some fellow from the far corner of the room called out: "Bailey, Bailey." Again Joe Bailey arose and spoke and again quiet prevailed. When Judge Hare again spoke he said: "Gentlemen, that was the straw that broke the camel's back. I see you want Mr. Bailey for your congressman, and you have a right to do so. It is a democratic principle that the majority rule. I bow to your will, and I hope that every baby born in Collin county this year will arrive on the scene crying 'Bailey.'"

Bailey carried Collin county, and in the November election was elected to congress. Judge Hare and Joe Bailey remained personal friends throughout the life of Judge Hare and no man ever paid another man a higher compliment than did Judge Hare to Joe Bailey after he was elected to congress.

When Joe Bailey made up his mind on a proposition, the warmest personal and political friend he ever had could not change him. In the campaign in Collin county a group of his friends asked him to permit them to buy "the drinks" for a crowd of his supporters in McKinney one Saturday afternoon. His reply was: "I never bought a drink of whiskey for a man in my life, and never will."

In his race for governor against Pat M. Neff, on his arrival in Sherman, a group of his friends asked him to "lay off" of President Wilson, pointing out that if he would do this he could be elected governor. He told them that he had rather express his honest opinion than to be governor. He did this and lost the race.

Joe Bailey's friends were not confined to his political supporters. Many of the most earnest expressions of sorrow over his sudden death in Sherman Saturday came from men who had not voted for him in recent years.

PRETTY BIG 34 YEAR OLD LILAC BUSH IS ADMIRED

McKinney enjoys an enviable reputation as a little city of many attractive, substantial homes, beautified by flowers and shrubbery and well kept yards and lawns. Many of these homes are especially attractive during the early spring months on account of their luxuriant lilac and other popular blooming yard shrubbery that grow in them.

The writer has in mind one huge lilac bush of special beauty and attractiveness. It stands in the yard of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Heard, corner of West Hunt and North College streets. Mrs. Heard secured this lilac bush from a florist in one of the northern states 34 years ago. It has grown to mammoth size for a lilac bush. Its blooms, which have already been shed this spring, sometimes grow as large as nine to ten inches in length. Lilacs are lavander or white in color, with lavender predominating. While the blooms only last for a very few weeks in the early spring, yet the foliage remains pretty and green as a shrub thing throughout the year, making an attractive yard shrubbery.

McKinney Plant Business Brisk This Spring

E. B. McTee, an active McKinney plant man, states that he has been selling sweet potato slips now for three weeks. He has also sold more than 600 cans of tomato plants besides many cabbage and other plants. Mr. McTee says that farmers are giving more attention than formerly to the production of sweet potatoes and other garden and truck foodstuffs.

He knows one farmer that is preparing to set out four acres of sweet potatoes this spring.

Sweet potatoes grow well in our black land and our farmers should give more attention to raising this popular article of home-grown food on every farm.

Other plant growers of our city and county also report brisk business this spring.

Lovejoy Building Being Remodeled; Awakens Memories

The brick building on north side of the public square next to the north-side Drug Co's. building on east, is being remodeled. The building was erected about 55 years ago by the late Col. R. DeArmond, who owned it until his death. It then became the property of his heirs, and Dick DeArmond owned it for a number of years. He sold it several years ago to Mrs. J. L. Lovejoy.

A new front is being put in. The entire front from top to bottom is being torn out. The brick work was an excellent job, testifying to the thoroughness of the old time brick mason who didn't figure on saving every spoon full of mortar possible. It is proving a hard job to dislodge the brick.

Colonel DeArmond was attorney for the H. & T. C. Railway Co. for many years and used half of the up stairs for an office. It was the handsomest office in the city. In fact there wasn't a law office in Dallas, Sherman or Denison that was more handsomely furnished. The doors were of finest texture and had glass in them—with gold leaf signs on them—thus: "R. DeArmond, Attorney-at-law"—"Private," etc. Fine Brussels carpets were on the floors. Handsome book cases containing hundreds of volumes of law-books were ranged around the walls. A costly chandelier hung from the ceiling. Colonel DeArmond was a noted lawyer and on occasions some of the greatest lawyers of the state would visit him here in preparing law suits and conventions. Those days we had no telephones. Hence people had to "get them" or "come get it," as it were. The H. & T. C. Ry. was the swiftest thing we had those days for travel. Hence the Colonel had to get on the train and go to talk with his co-counsellors, or they had to come here. But the world was moving then—or getting ready to move. And no telephone came to town. And when it got here the great (?) company behind it leased Col. DeArmond's office in which to install the first telephone "exchange" McKinney ever had. The keyboard was about six feet, and a very simple cheap affair when compared to our present gigantic telephone offices. We might tell you more but we won't—not now, anyway. For perhaps you are tired.

PROVISIONS NEW MARRIAGE LAW BY LAST LEGISLATURE

Here is the new marriage law enacted by the last legislature:

The new marriage license law recently passed by the Texas legislature reads as follows:

Article 4605-A. For the purpose of ascertaining all facts required under the statutes, the county clerk, at the time the license is applied for, shall examine the applicant or applicants for the license under oath as to age and residence, which shall be reduced to writing by the county clerk, and subscribed to by the applicant or applicants. In case either party is absent when application is made an affidavit shall be made by a person other than the contracting party as to the age and residence of the absent party. Said affidavit to be left in the county clerks's office.

Article 4604-B. Application for license shall be made at least thirty days before the license shall be issued. Immediately upon receipt an application for a licence the county clerk shall record in a book kept for that purpose and marked "Notice of Intention to Marry," and after the expiration of three and not more than thirty days after signing the notice of intention to marry, the county clerk may issue said license.

Article 4604-C. Before the county clerk shall issue a marriage license the man shall produce certificate from a reputable licensed physician to show that he is free from venereal disease.

TEXAS RAISES FOUR-FIFTHS OF AMERICAN BERMUDA ONION CROP NOW GOING TO MARKET

BY VICTOR H. SCHOTTELMAYER.

The Texas early Bermuda onion crop has started to move from South Texas. The movement will be in full swing in the Laredo and Winter Garden districts about April 15.

Few persons realize that Texas produces about four-fifths of the American Bermuda onion crop and that last year this state shipped 5,900 cars, valued at around $4,000,000, and that the 1929 Texas crop is expected to total 6,125 cars.

According to the Bureau of Agricultural Economics this year's planting to Bermuda onions totals 24,250 acres, of which 19,020 acres are in Texas and 3,000 acres in California and 2,500 in Louisiana.

Smaller Onion Crop.

The 1928 Bermuda onion crop totaled 4,739,000 bushels and this year's crop is estimated at 4,455,400 bushels, a decrease of approximately 283,600 bushels.

The yield per acre for Texas is placed at 177 bushels, for California at 275 bushels and for Louisiana at 100 bushels. Early Texas onion shipments are usually a few days ahead of both other states and Texas growers usually find the market practically free of competing supplies.

Adds New Wealth.

Along with the other movement of South Texas vegetables and fruits, which to date total some 13,500 cars, these loadings contribute much to the wealth of a comparatively restricted area of production. It also shows the enormous expanse of Texas, where planting of crops will not begin in the Panhandle and Plains country for another month, whereas South Texas is supplying the markets of the nation with winter truck and fruits.

The wide variety of Texas climate and the immense possibilities in agricultural and horticultural production must eventually bring about an undreamed of development. Since Texas business is so largely dependent upon agriculture and stock raising, the development of these industries is the concern of everyone.

Canning Budget Advised For Every Family

Canning budgets as guides to the busy farm house-wife in planning her garden and canning work are coming into wider use every year, and are urged by home demonstration officials of the A. & M. Extension service. A large number of home demonstration clubs now include such a budget in their year books, basing recommendations on the requirements of the protective diet which consists of milk, raw fruits or vegetables and leafy vegetables daily, and tomatoes or citrus fruits three times per week.

A canning budget for a family of five for four months, as worked out by the home demonstration agent of Knox county, provides for the following: 48 quarts tomatoes, 8 quarts carrots, 16 quarts beets, 32 quarts string beans, 8 quarts okra, 16 quarts kraut, 16 quarts soup mixture, 16 quarts corn, 16 quarts English peas, 32 quarts apples, 48 quarts peach, 16 quarts pears, 16 quarts plums, 56 quarts blackberries and 4 quarts fruit juices, in addition to this is its recommended that one pint of preserves and two glasses of jelly be allowed for each week.

"This budget," states Miss Lola Blair, food specialist in the extension service, "will vary for different sections of the state according to the number of months fresh vegetables can be gathered from the garden. In this case it provides sufficient canned fruits and vegetables to take care of an average family for four winter months when fresh stuff is obtainable only in stores. Then again, some families will particularly relish certain of these canned foods more than other and may therefore wish to increase the allowance for these products. But it should be borne in mind that every family should provide a variety of canned foods at least this large. Under no circumstances should canning be confined to a small group of vegetables and fruits, for healthful eating and living demands that the diet be varied."

M'KINNEY LADY'S HOME CENTER VARIED INTEREST

MUSIC, PAINTINGS, BOOKS FLOWERS, BIRDS BESPEAK CULTURE

The editor and wife and our good friend, Scotty Forsyth, were recent Sunday afternoon visitors in the home of Mrs. J. E. Gibson, widow of the late Dr. J. E. Gibson, one of McKinney's most widely known and successful physicians for about forty years, and who was retired from practice when he passed away about two years ago. Mrs. Gibson's home is in the second block west of the public square at the corner of West Louisiana and South Church streets.

Mrs. Gibson is a daughter of the late Col. Clementson, prominent early day McKinney lawyer, and one of the most eloquent orators who ever lived in our city. She was thoroughly educated in music, in which art she always excelled as a teacher and pianist. In her maturer years she still retains her youthful love and proficiency in music and daily enjoys her practice on her new baby grand piano, to purchase which her beloved husband provided the money before his death.

Mrs. Gibson is also a great lover of canary birds and pretty flowers. She has a number of bright, golden plumaged canary singers to brighten and gladden her home.

Mrs. Gibson's small yard space, both front and rear, are tastily landscaped, laid out and planted in roses and a variety of other beautiful blooming flowers at this mid-spring season. Other flowers are also planted that come on from time to time through the later summer and fall seasons.

The late Dr. Gibson and his cultured wife beautifully furnished their home, in which cordial, old-time Southern hospitality is always found abiding by guests therein.

Mrs. Gibson has collected through the years numerous family heirlooms, relics and keepsakes that have been handed down through several past generations of her family. These are all highly prized mementos and antiques in the Gibson home. Some of them are as old as two hundred years.

Mrs. Gibson always enjoys visits from her friends and former pupils, and she has multitudes of them in our city and other parts of the county and state.

Mrs. M. L. Flenniken of Camp San Saba is concluding a two weeks' visit in McKinney with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Morgan, and her aged old grandfather, W. L. Osburn, who is residing in the Morgan home. Mrs. Flenniken was born and reared at Melissa. She and her husband have been living in Southwest Texas for about a year now, where Prof. Flenniken is engaged in school teaching.

LATE APRIL OR MAY IS TIME TO PLANT TOMATOES

TIMELY SUGGESTIONS TO GARDENERS ON POPULAR VEGETABLES

The last half of April to the first half of May is the proper time to plant tomatoes here in the South, depending upon locality and the weather.

The plants should be about eight or ten weeks old, stocky and squat, and almost ready to bloom. If the variety is right, such plants will begin to bear fruit from the middle of June to July 1. When transplanted or set in the open field, a stake should be driven alongside the plants the plants tied to the stake, and pruned to a single stem. Pruning is merely removing the auxiliary shoots as soon as they appear the same process as "suckering" corn or tobacco. If the plants are beheaded above the fourth cluster, much earlier and larger fruit will be your reward.

The mid-season tomatoes need not be started so early, six weeks before setting, about May 10, is ample. They may be pruned and staked, as you prefer, for not extreme earliness but for heavy yield, is the main object with the mid-season tomatoes. But with the later, or canning, crop differs only from the mid-season crop in variety.

Best Type of Soil.

Land for tomatoes should not be overly rich in nitrogen, or heavy top growth and shedding of bloom will surely follow, but phosphorus should be plentiful, for on this food element earliness and heavy setting of fruit depends. Im manure is used acid phospate should be disked or worked in shallowly on same space into which a ton of manure is plowed. If manure is scarce, but if the ground has in it enough humus to work well, a complete fertilizer of 3-8-5 or similar analysis, should be used, one sack to 100 square feet on the side.

To have tomatoes all season through, the proper varieties must be used. The following is a list of the red sorts: Earliana, Bonny, Best or John Baer, Stone or Greater Baltimore. For those who prefer the pink fruited sorts, because of their mildness of flavor, the following is a good assortment; June Pink, Pink Beauty and Ponderosa. The proportion of plants of each would be about 20 per cent of the early kind, 40 per cent of the mid-season, and 40 per cent of the later kind. This will give you fresh tomatoes clear through the season, for either canning, for market, or home use or for all three purposes.—Mrs. May Huskins in Semi-Weekly Farm News.

FUNERAL FOR WM. PRESLEY O'NEAL HELD AT FOOTE

MANY BEAUTIFUL FLORAL OFFERINGS COVER MOUND

Funeral services for William Presley O'Neal, who died Wednesday, April 17, at his late home in the Foote community, six miles west of McKinney, were held Thursday at the Foote Baptist church, Rev. J. Ben Snider conducted the services assisted by Rev. J. C. Merrill and Rev. J. L. Wallace.

A touching part of the service was the duet by Revs. Wallace and Merrill, "When I Go Home." Interment was in the Mt. Olive cemetery beside the grave of his mother and an infant son, who preceded him to the grave.

Beautiful floral offerings, tokens of love and esteem from his many friends, covered the grave of the deceased.

William Presley ONeal was born in Lincoln county, Tenn., December 24, 1851. He moved with his family to Collin county about thirty-five years ago. He joined the Baptist church in early manhood and has lived a consistent Christian life since.

The deceased was a useful citizen, a good neighbor, a faithful and loving husband, and a kind father.

Besides his wife he is survived by one brother, Jim O'Neal of Dellrose, Tenn.; two sisters, Mrs. Jim Conine of Garland, and Mrs. George Paysinger of McKinney. He is also survived by the following children: J. B. O'Neal of Honey Grove, Mrs. Robert Greer of McKinney, Mrs. Ed Greer of Lockney, Mrs. W. L. Watkins of McKinney, Mrs. John Furr of Rhea Mills, Mrs. W. A. Hand of Amarillo, Mrs. J. S. Hand of Canyon, Grady O'Neal of Weston, Emmet O'Neal of Foote, and Miss Bessie O'Neal, at home. He is also survived by twenty-eight grandchildren two great-grandchildren and a host of other friends and relatives.

Among those who attended the funeral from out of the county were Mrs. Jim Conine of Garland; Mr. and Mrs. David Conine, Mr. and Mrs. Vance Blackburn, Mrs. Emma Anderson and Mrs. Ed Ford, all of Dallas; Raymond Conine and wife of Celeste; Mr. and Mrs. Burl Conine of Royse City; Mrs. Hiram Myers of Greenville; J. B. O'Neal and family of Honey Grove; J. S. Hand and wife of Canyon, Mrs. W. A. Hand and son of Amarillo; Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Merrill of Calvert; Rev. J. L. Wallace of Franklin, and Rev. J. R. Hilger of Greenville.

DISTRICT MEET OF METHODISTS HERE NEXT WEEK

BISHOP SAM R. HAY WILL BE AMONG PROMINENT VISITORS

Plans are being made here for the annual Methodist District conference which will be held at the First Methodist church Wednesday and Thursday of next week, April 24 and 25. Dr. R. G. Mood, presiding elder of the McKinney district, will preside. Dr. J. A. Old, pastor of the First Methodist church, will assist in the two-day program.

Among the distinguished visitors who will be here will be Bishop Sam R. Hay of Houston, who will deliver a sermon during the program here.

The McKinney district includes all of Collin county, all of Dallas county with the exception of the city of Dallas, and part of Hunt county. The district contains twenty-six pastoral charges.

About 200 lay delegates are expected here for the meeting. Lunch will be served at noon both days of the district meet.

This annual meeting was held last year at Prosper.

One of the principal features of the session will be election of lay delegates to the Methodist Annual conference which meets in McKinney in October. All pastors are ex-officio members of the annual conference. At this meeting here next week, ten delegates will be named to the annual conference here in October.

The market for milk and milk products is steady and constantly on the increase. It is an income producer every month, every week of the year. This makes it the most dependable of all farm investments.

Use it to provide your "living" and look to your crop or crops for the year's profit above expenses. You do not then need to be disturbed about failing crops or unfavorable market conditions—because all income aside from dairying will be "all velvet."

Wherever this policy has been followed farming prosperity is little disturbed by fluctuations—dairy products do not fluctuate.

McKinney Sends Many Visitors To Baptist Meet

McKinney was well represented at the meeting of the State Sunday School Convention, held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week, April 16, 17, 18, at Sherman. The First Baptist church there was the scene of the sessions, the overflow crowds going to the First Presbyterian church. There were about 3,500 messengers there from all parts of the state present—from El Paso, Galveston, Corpus Christi, San Antonio, Houston, Orange, Texarkana and, in fact, from every district of the state.

The convention proved to be one of the most successful annual gatherings in the history of the organization. The convention meets next year at Houston.

Dr. M. E. Hudson, Rev. M. F. Wheeler, Rev. T. F. Hoffman, Rev. Bradshaw, Rev. G. B. Aubart, Rev. J. Ben Snider, Rev. G. O. Key, Mrs. Green, W. W. Pruett and family, C. M. Bryan and a score of more other McKinney citizens were present at the convention.

COLLIN COUNTY COUNCIL OF PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH U. S. A. PARKER, APRIL 16

The Collin County Presbyterian Council convened with the Corinth Church at Parker, Tuesday, April 16, at 10:30 o'clock, for an all day meeting.

Before the hour of opening the cars began to arrive, and when the hour came, a fine delegation filled the auditorium, representing seven Collin county churches with visitors from Garland, Vickery, Richardson and Dallas. Rev. P. M. Ford was pastor host.

The program opened with a rousing song service led by Mr. Will tinson, who has a splendid voice and is a fine leader. This church is most fortunate in having a large number of fine male voices. No church in the county can excel them in their music. Rev. W. T. Thurman of Plano, gave the devotional. Mr. Stinson sang a beautiful solo. A pleasing feature of both the morning and afternoon sessions was the program put on by thirty small children from Reynold's Home, under the leadership of Mrs. F. B. Rudolph, the kindergarten teacher. They sang, read and gave a scripture drill, and did it all well. The oratorical contest by five boys in the morning and five girls in the afternoon was good, and showed a fine spirit of contest.

A sermon by Dr. Glenn L. Sneed of Trinity Church, Dallas, was a great inspiration and afforded much food for thought.

Mr. Minatra, superintendent of Reynolds Home, brought a brief message from the Home, that was highly appreciated. Everyone present was impressed with the self-sacrificing work Mr. and Mrs. Minatra and the corps of helpers are doing for these children.

At 12:30 a sumptuous dinner was served to all on the grounds. A fine hospitality from Mr. and Mrs. Ford, and their splendid people was shown during the entire day.

The afternoon session was presided over in an able manner by Mrs. Ford. Mrs. Frances Gray as secretary, read minutes of last meeting, and called roll of churches. Reports were given from each woman's auxiliary represented. A baritone solo by Mr. Berard Hooper of Parker was so well rendered he was forced to respond to a hearty encore.

Miss Hazel Smith, director of young people's work in City Temple, Dallas, brought a worth while message on the problems of youth.

An inspirational address by Rev. Max Morrison of Riggs Memorial Church, Dallas, completed a well filled program.

Dr. E. O. Whitwell closed with prayer. All departed feeling that this was one of the best meetings the Council has had, and thanking those good people for their fine hospitality.

An installation service was held in the evening, beginning at 8 o'clock. Dr. E. O. Whitwell, moderator of Dallas Presbytery presided and gave a charge to the people. Dr. Glenn Sneed preached the sermon, and Rev. W. T. Thurman, delivered the charge to the installed pastor, Rev. P. M. Ford.

Those attending the Council from McKinney were Dr. and Mrs. E. O. Whitwell, Rev. J. B. Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Clendenen, Mrs. Will Rhea, Mrs. Runion and daughters, Misses Kathleen and Annie Mae; Mrs. Arthur Curtis, Mrs. Lowry, Mrs. Lonsford, Miss Cleora Howell, Mrs. Larson, Mrs. J. W. Dowdy, Mrs. W. C. Dowdy, Mrs. Walter Hedgecoxe, Miss Mary Kennedy and Mrs. Clint Thompson.

FORMER WYLIE BANKER ACQUITTED OF EMBEZZLEMENT

SAM W. SIBLEY TO ASK DAMAGES OF MILLION DOLLARS, SAYS

Sam W. Sibley, former president of a bank at Wylie, and resident of the little city until a few years ago when he moved to Dallas, has been acquitted by a jury in a Dallas court on a charge of embezzlement. A Dallas news story says:

Sam W. Sibley, the man whom state's attorneys unsuccessfully sought to send to the penitentiary on a charge of embezzling $30,000 of the Kaufman Oil Mill funds, will file a damage suit for a million dollars against persons who were responsible for his trial.

This was the statement made Wednesday by Sibley an hour after a jury in District Judge Charles A. Pippen's court returned an instructed verdict of not guilty.

Motion for instructed verdict was made by Sibley's attorney, Jed C Adams, Dallas veteran criminal lawyer, a former partner of Mike T. Lively, special prosecutor. Adams contended the state had failed to make a case.

To Ask Payment.

Sibley declared he also would file suit against the former operators of the Kaufman Oil Mill for past services. Sibley, according to his own story, was agent for the company when it was first organized in 1926. It was his duty to borrow money to finance the firm's operations, giving notes as security.

An indictment charging four counts of embezzlement was returned against Sibley early in 1927 after W. G. Crumpler, of Athens, president of the firm; John H. Kirby, Houston lumberman, and other interested parties claimed a loss of $30,000.

ROTARIANS REPORT BEST ATTENDANCE IN SEVERAL MONTHS

CLUB WORK OF FEDERATION FOR 30 YEARS REVIEWED BY MRS. LOVEJOY

The Rotary club at noon today had the largest attendance in several months. President Bill Rhea was in the chair. Dr. M. E. Hudson, a visitor, offered the invocation.

The program committee was headed by Gould Reese. He presented Henry W. Warden, who presided.

Miss Nina Thompson, a McKinney favorite reader, gave a reading and an encore. A little 5-year-old pupil of Miss Thompson's also read. Both delighted their audience.

Mrs. J. L. Lovejoy, McKinney's outstanding civic worker, gave a history of Federated club work here for thirty-one years. The wonderful work accomplished by the women's clubs of McKinney was a great surprise to the Rotarians and visitors. The club women have certainly wrought wonders in McKinney.

The Bloomdale Home Demonstration club telephoned in an invitation for the Rotarians to be their guests on Friday, and the invitation was unanimously accepted.

Joe Grissom, director of the Municipal band, was the guest of B. Tidwell, and presented the question of the future of the McKinney band. After his short, concise statement a motion was made, seconded and carried that the matter be submitted to the board of directors for action.

SEEKING FUNDS FOR BURLESON COLLEGE AID

PRESIDENT OF INSTITUTION HERE CO-OPERATING WITH LOCAL CHURCHMEN

President John Caylor of Burleson college in Greenville is visiting the pastors of the Baptist churches in McKinney and assisting in a campaign being conducted by local Baptists to raise funds for the Baptist college of Greenville.

The city of Greenville, according to Mr. Caylor, has deposited in a Greenville bank, $25,000 for Burleson college. This fund is conditioned upon the raising of $7,500 among the Baptists and other friends of Burleson college in North Texas. Burleson is the largest and oldest denominational junior college in Texas. More than seven thousand students have been educated in the institution, including preachers, teachers, lawyers, physicians, business men and home builders, throughout the state.

Dr. M. E. Hudson and President Caylor report progress in the local campaign, every individual solicited up to the present time, having contributed to the college fund.

22 Schools Close Successful Terms

Twenty-two schools of the county have already closed their 1928-29 terms, County Supt. S. C. Stephens announced Friday. All those who have closed this year have enjoyed a splendid school year.

Prof. Stephens was invited to Bowlby Friday to attend an all-day gathering at the school's closing. Mrs. N. S. Jefferson is the teacher and has done a great work at that school this year. A dinner was served at noon. The Lebanon school, and possibly several others also closed Friday. At Lebanon, a baseball game between Bush and Lebanon featured the day's program.

VIEWS OF PRINCIPAL POINTS OF INTEREST AT BRYAN WHERE ETEX CHAMBER MEETS

A & M Stadium where pageant will be staged

John D. Middleton, President of Greenville

E. H. Astin, Bryan, convention Committee chairman

Where convention will be held, at Bryan

Bryan, Texas, April 23.—As host city for the third annual convention of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce, Bryan will become the Mecca for thousands of visitors May 5-7. Tentative estimates on the crowd expected range all the way from 25,000 to 50,000. In any event, indications point to the largest convention assemblage in the history of the organization.

John D. Middleton of Greenville, president of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce, will preside at the business sessions. Mr. Middleton is expected to arrive at the convention city aboard the "President's Special," a special train named in his honor that will start at Paris and pick up delegations at various other points, including Greenville, en route.

E. H. Astin, Bryan banker and planter and a vice-president of the regional organization, as general chairman of the convention committee is the man at the helm of the extensive program of arrangements for the coming meeting.

Business sessions of the convention will be held in the auditorium of the First Baptist church of Bryan. The spectacular pageant, scheduled for the night of May 6, and at which the queen of East Texas with her court of East Texas beauties will reign will be staged within the arena of the athletic stadium at the A. & M. college of Texas.

BIG TERRACING DEMONSTRATION IN COLLIN SOON

Counties that take part in the huge terracing campaign to save the rapidly eroding soils of the blackland areas of North and Central Texas will be launched in Dallas on May 8; Ellis county at Waxahachie, May; Ellis county at Waxahachie, May 9; then in Navarro, Bell, McLennan, Johnson, Tarrant, Denton, Cook and Grayson counties.

County Farm Agent Roy Saunders is planning a big attendance of farmers from every part of this county to be at McKinney May 8, to get the benefit of this soil saving demonstration. All the leading manufacturers and distributors of terracing machinery and tractors have practically consented to place adequate machinery at the disposal of these demonstrations in every county to make these demonstrations. Local dealers are requested to get in touch with county agents of the respective counties in which the terracing demonstrations are to be held.

During his six-year period of county agency work in Collin, Mr. Saunders has staged about 156 terracing demonstrations that have been held in almost every section of the county. Mr. Saunders says that an average of about ten or twelve have attended each of these soil conservation demonstrations. Many farmers have been instructed in the use of the farm level, and are now qualified to do their own surveying and run and lay off their own terrace lines. More than seventy-five farm levels have been purchased by farmers of Collin county during this 6-year period.

If this is a reasonably dry summer. There will be a great revival of interest in farm terracing again this year.

BEAUTIFYING HOME GARDE

Gardens are very wonderful many ways. On planning to hav garden you should choose a p that is well fertilized. Trees sh not be hanging over the fence keep the sunlight out of the gar The place should be near enough the lady of the house might go get vegetables while her cake cooking in the oven, and return time to keep it from burning.

Raising a good garden is like everything else, it takes a bit pains and care. But if you are interested in it, why waste time away? If a thing is not w doing well it is not worth doing all.

Fencing the garden is very ne sary to keep the fowls out. may, if you wish, set out some gr vines around the garden and let run up on the fence. This not will make a pretty background, will soon furnish fruit for the day guest.

Small flowers such as larksp phlox and zennias, planted at end of the garden, will add m attraction and beauty. You sh have a row or two or each; bage, tomatoes, onions, and pep Plant them so that when ripe, will resemble bushes loaded d with Easter eggs on Easter morn as you stand far away looking the beautiful foloage.

Now women of time, health love for gardening remember "A bird in hand is worth two the bush." Take advantage of opportunity and prosper as you Please remember to plow deep, sluggards sleep and you shall vegetables to sell and to eat.
